UNDER WHAT conditions in a patent be obtained for an improvement on an existing machine? E. E. L.

A. The Patent Office grants patents for improvements upon existing machines, if, upon ex-amination of applications for such patents, the improvements appear to be novel and are considered to have involved the ex-ercise of inventive skill.

Q What is the significance of "F. Ad. Vivum" on the Trumeninaugural pocket plees? P. E. H.
A. The inscription F. Ad.
Vivum on the Truman inaugural medal means "Taken from life" reciai means "Taken grow me (Fecit ad vivum), in other words, the sculptor sketched the design from life. The design was sketched while the Prosi-dent was answering his letters.

Q. Who are the Baker St. Ir-Q. Who are the Baker St. In-regulars? D. O. F. A. Baker St. Irregulars is the name of a fraternal literary or-ganization formed hi 1934 by a group of literary men interest-ed in Sherlock Holmes. They take their name from the Lon-don street Arabs who were char-acterized by Holmes are ""seeacterized by Holmes as "raga-muffins who go everywhere, see everything and overhear ev-eryone."

Q. How can one estimate the number of plants needed for a round or oval flower bed, 6 feet in diameter? Is there a book that gives tables showing the number of plants needed for specific areas? L. R. Y. A. A 6-foot bed requires 112 plants, 6 inches apart; 28 plants, 12 inches apart; 13 plants, 18 inches apart; and seven plants, 24 inches apart. The method of determining the number of plants or seeds for specific areas will be found under Garden Ta-bles in "Taylor's Encyclopedia of Gardening" published by The American Garden Guild Inc., and Houghton, Mifflin Company (Boston) 1948. many people do?

Yes, decidedly. Imagine a minister striking the attitude of a prize fighter, clenching his fists

and shouting, "All stand up!
Take this bodily position and then let us pray!" He would hardly induce a devotional aftitude of mind. But kneeling, bowing your head, closing your eyes tend strongly to induce a spiritual attitude. If husbands and wives would stop in a quarrel and sing, "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Chris-tian love," they would soon find themselves in each other's arms.

No one knows enough to an-
