

Today's Radio Highlights

Special Events

8:45 p. m.—Hazel E. Stassen (WISC): address of United Negro College fund campaign.

9:30 p. m.—Madison Home Appliance and Radio Show (WISC): audience participation program at East high school.

9 a. m.—Fred Waring (WIBA): "Silver Night," based on "Moonlight Sonata," new song by George Frago.

6 p. m.—Supper Club (WIBA): April medley, "Always True to You," "Need You."

9 p. m.—Melody Lane (WBBM): George Chappski of San Carlo Opera Co. guest; "Come Back to Sorrento," "Toreador Song."

9:30 p. m.—Northwestern (WGN): "Clementine," "Soon Ah Will Be Done," "As the Girls Go," Bach's "Praise Him."

10:15 p. m.—Morton Downey (WIBA): "Some Enchanted Evening," "Love Me, Love Me, Sweet and Lovely," "I'll Always Take the Best of You," "So Dear to My Heart."

Variety 8:30 p. m.—Fibber McGee (WIBA): tries to catch up on his good deeds.

Drama 9 p. m.—Mystery Theater (WBBM): "The Twin Bed Murder Case."

7:30 p. m.—Mr. and Mrs. North (WBBM): insurance policy leads to police.

9:05 p. m.—Blk Town (WIBA): Edith Lorand as blind gypsy violinist.

Sports 1:25 p. m.—Baseball (WIND): Cubs vs. Pirates.

1:55 p. m.—Baseball (WJJD): White Sox vs. Detroit.

6:45 p. m.—Inside of Sports (WKOK): Wally Berger's crucial 1933 homer.

10:15 p. m.—Joe Hesel (WISC): and Rogers Hornsby.

Discussion 11 a. m.—Prof. Chester Easton (WHA): "Berlin: Key to European Settlement."

3:25 p. m.—Forum (WHA): "Should Communists Be Permitted to Teach?"

4:15 p. m.—Legislative Forum (WHA): "Tobacco Marketing in Wisconsin," Assemblyman Patrick Lucey.

7:30 p. m.—America's Town Meeting (WISC): "Should the Senate Ratify the North Atlantic Pact?" Sen. J. Sparkman (D—W. Va.), George F. Willard, Sen. P. Jenner (R—Ind.), Dr. P. Nettels.

Miscellaneous 9:30 a. m.—Let's Find Out (WHA): "The Dress That Grew."

10 a. m.—Homemakers (WHA): "Prepare for Trouble—Prevent It," Mrs. Albert Krall; "Getting the Garment Cut and Marked," Helen Pearson.

12:30 p. m.—Farm Program (WHA): "The Business Side of Farming," P. E. McNall; "Fruit Growing Suggestions," C. L. Kuehner.

4:45 p. m.—This Is Your Life (WIBA): job-hunting girl sees life in reviewing.

9:30 p. m.—People Are Funny (WIBA): contestants win week's free maid service.

WHA and WHA-FM 770 Kc.—88.7 Mc. TUESDAY

7:30 Bandwagon

7:45 Morning News

9:00 Weather Report

9:15 Living Melodies

9:30 Wisconsin Words

9:45 Nursery Melodies of the Air

10:00 Let's Find Out

10:15 Let's Find Out

10:30 Let's Find Out

10:45 Let's Find Out

11:00 Let's Find Out

11:15 Let's Find Out

11:30 Let's Find Out

11:45 Let's Find Out

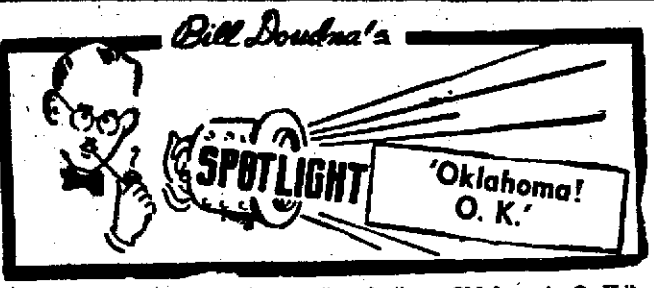

12:00 Let's Find Out

12:15 Let's Find Out

Radio Program Schedules by the Clock

Table with columns for radio stations (WIBA, WISC, WKOW, WISU, WBBM, WENR-WLS, WGN, WMAQ) and their respective program schedules for Tuesday.

Table with columns for radio stations (WIBA, WISC, WKOW, WISU, WBBM, WENR-WLS, WGN, WMAQ) and their respective program schedules for Wednesday.

The title song of "Oklahoma!" ends "... Oklahoma!—O. K." And after six years it still is.

The Theater Guild, which produced the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical, was founded 30 years ago today. And the company which opened before a capacity house at the Parkway theater Monday night was up to the high standard set by that organization for its New York and its touring companies.

The troupe played the high-spirited opus with verve and vitality, accommodating itself to the comparatively small confines of the Parkway stage with an ingenuity which gave the dancers their freedom—and, despite the popularity and quality of the tunes, dancing is one of "Oklahoma's" main ingredients.

You Know 'em By this time, everybody knows those songs—"Oh, What a Beautiful Morning," "The Surrey With the Fringe on Top," and the rest—but they retained their freshness in the Parkway presentation.

This was due largely to the youthful voices and their owners' enthusiasm; another factor was the adequate orchestra, a rarity with traveling musicals.

Just about everybody knows the story, too—how Curly, the cowboy, wins Laurie, the coy ranch girl; how Akim, the peddler, avoids a shotgun wedding and sends Ado Annie to her own true love, only to get lassoed by love's lariat again and for keeps; how Jud, the neurotic farmhand, woos Laurie and loses.

No wonder "Oklahoma!" goes on and on, for the Theater Guild smartly keeps cast, costuming, scenery, and every other phase of production at peak.

The Performers Ridge Bond was a perfect Curly, with a better voice than some of his better known predecessors and the face and manner to sweep a girl off her feet.

Lynn Lander was a pretty Laurie, perhaps a bit too much on the coy side, but charming and with an adequate voice.

For that matter, there was hardly a weak spot. Jean Ruth played Ado Annie, "the girl who can't say no," with the high-pitched, off-key singing voice made famous by Celeste Holm; but with a suggestion of shyness which made her dumbness a bit more genuine.

Henry Clarke played Jud superbly, and Jerry Mann had a field day with Ali Hakim, the "Persian peddler" who couldn't keep out of trouble.

Walter Donaldson was first-rate as beautiful Will Parker, getting a big hand in the first act with his beautifully in their love scenes, especially when Bond described his dream-built surry; and Bond and Clarke did a splendid job with "Pore Jud," the famous scene in which Curly describes Jud's funeral, and Jud mournfully surveys himself laid out.

"Oklahoma!" will be here all week—with performances at 8:30 p. m. nightly through Saturday and at 2:20 p. m. Wednesday and Saturday.

In six short years, it has become an American tradition—and now Madison knows why.

BKOSA: Antonio Brosa, former first violinist of the Pro Arte quartet, was to sail for England Monday after an American concert tour.

He played and the Library of Congress, William and Mary college, and Harvard university under auspices of the Coolidge foundation. Upon his arrival in England, Brosa will begin a series of concerts and broadcasts. Next season, he will return to the U. S. for another tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Brosa now live in England. Mrs. Brosa made the trip with the violinist.

No Strain on Your Budget

when you shop on Tuesday and save twice as much on every purchase.

Tuesday, Always

DOUBLE EAGLE STAMP DAY

at Baron's Double Eagle Stamps Today

INTRODUCING...

Lip-Lite

Quick as a flash and easy as rolling off a log you can make 4 wonderful chocolate treats with the new Sweet cocoa mix.

BAKERS' 4 in 1

Most Kitchen for your Money Steel constructed Tops of durability Custom built for you. Highest standards Are met in design; Reduces time and Labor in your kitchen Exclusively yours in a St. Charles Steel Kitchen

At your grocer's NOW! BUY BAKERS' 4 in 1

Replacement Batteries.....2 for 15c Mail Order Please send me.....Lip-Lites at 98c Name Address Charge Cash COD Check

Car Stolen Here Three Years Ago Recovered

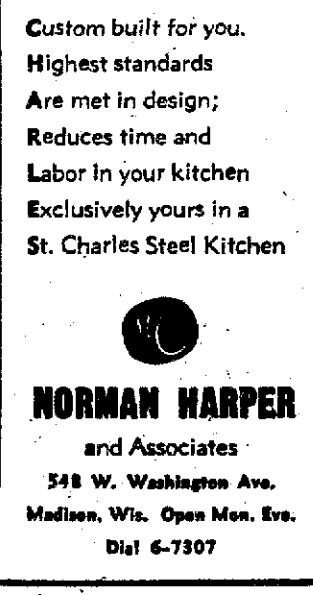

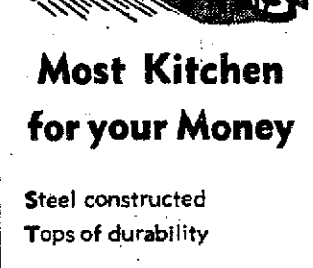

A car which was stolen May 9, 1946, from Charles C. Bench, 934 Drake st., was found Monday on a used car lot in Chillicothe, Ill., Madison police were informed.

3 SEA SCOUTS DUNKED

MILWAUKEE—(AP)—Three Milwaukee teen-age Sea Scouts got a dunking late Monday when their 21-foot lifeboat capsized inside the breakwater off Meitland Field. Jerry Stevenson, 16, and Jack Stacy, 16, suffered no ill effects from the cold water, but Don Grenda, 15, was hospitalized suffering from shock and exposure.

AWNINGS

AT PRICES THAT CAN'T BE BEAT Capital City AWNING & TENT CO. 2622 Helena St., Madison 4 or phone F. 8612

Joyce Funeral Home L. S. Joyce Wilbur J. McGuire Funeral Directors 540 W. Washington Ave. Badger 788

I'M SUSIE-Q A NORCROSS CARD LOOK FOR ME ON America's Best-Loved Greeting Cards NORCROSS INC. 244 MADISON AVE., N.Y.

BUY BAKERS' 4 in 1 Norman Harper and Associates 548 W. Washington Ave. Madison, Wis. Open Mon. Eve. Dial 6-7307