Answer to Question No. 3

Yes. Bored people do the darndest things—drive their cars over cliffs, get drunk, commit crime, fight the boss, get fired, murder their wives or husbands and commit suicide. Writer John Gibson in Pageant lists these and numerous other dangerous things people do to escape boredom. Fortunately, there's a com-plete cure. Our booklet, "Relax-ation," tells the methods of Dr. Fink and Jacobson. You can't be bored if you are completely relaxed. It gives you a new start in life. Try it.
