Audubon Society

Asks Rotary Aid The Madison Rotary Club has been asked to aid in the National Audubon Society 1949 drive for $25,000 to maintain Audubon sanctuaries. In the wildlife sanctuaries from Cape Sable to Corpus Christi, the birds are safe from chilled shot and illegal trapping, as well as accidental losses caused by in-secticides, power lines, water pollution, and countless other dangers which civilization bring to wildlife, the society said in its appeal. The society has its head-quarters at 1000 Fifth ave. New York, 28, N. Y.

First Grandson Brings Smile to Bailiff's Face

Superior Court Bailiff Melvin Bailey had a big smile Monday, even for the persons who made a disturbance while court was in session.

His good humor was caused by the arrival of his first grandson, born early Monday at St. Mary's hospital to his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bailey, 421 W. Dayton st.

The new 7½-pound grandson has a sister, Sandra, aged 1½.
