Our conversation then drifted around to another product of South Africa—diamonds—and, at the mention of the hallowed word, Eleanor dropped her book and joined our town hall of the hir.

"There's one thing about diamonds," she said. "They're nlike money in the bank."

The beryl king smiled. "I'd agree with you." he said. "if it

Only within limits. You can't read such a truly great book as Clyde Kluckhohn's $10.000 prize book. "Mirror for Man," without concluding your personality and character are immnesely influenced by the life about you. A Russian baby rearred in U. S. or Canada would have the character of an American or Canadian. The Crow Indian is generous according to the Crow customs, You can do a lot, but you can't do it all.

Answer to Question No. 2

No, although the fault is not altogether hers. Part is due to altogether hers. Part is due to our failure to provide hobbies, part-time employment, social life and recreation for our rapidly growing hosts of older people. But it shows she has never weaned her children or broken away from the habit of "doing" for them. It's bad for both if she regards them as babies that should absorb c't her emotional lii. She has not developed outside activities and interests.
