

The Listener Talks Back

Barring Singing Commercials, It's Fine

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA
How far has radio progressed in the last 25 or 30 years? You can get as many answers as you can find people who have listened more or less critically during that time.

I remember, however, the thrill of sitting in the University YMCA listening to basketball games being broadcast from almost next door—the armory. For an antenna, we used a wire clothing basket "borrowed" from the university gym.

Burl Ives Has Hit in New Release

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA
For the past few weeks, we've devoted ourselves to serious music in this department. With summer here, and the concert season just over, let's listen this week to some of the outstanding releases among popular records.

Probably the best Burl Ives record yet—"Riders in the Sky." By the time this appears, it may well be the outstanding current hit.

Triple titles are something of a vogue right now, and Dick Jurgens offers one "Women! Women! Women!" with vocal by Al Galante, Jimmy Castle, and the ensemble.
