Answer to Question No. 3

Answer to Question No. 3 Yes. The New York Citizens Council has developed a score board which you can apply to your town. Items and scoring run as follows: 1. Facilities for education. 2. Hou sin g and planning. 3. Religious institu-tions, etc. 4. Equality of oppos-tunity (race and religious dis-crimination, etc.). 5. Economic development (jobs available; etc.). 6. Cultural opportunities— schools, libraries, etc. 7. Recrea-tional facilities. 8. Health and welfare facilities. 9. Govern-ment, good or bad. 10. Commu-nity organization—forums, citiz-zens councils, etc. Rate each zens councils, etc. Rate each point "good," "fair," "poor." The more "goods" and "fairs," the better.
