fortress." It has been a military outpost since Roman times.

Luxembourg knows betterthan most other small countries' the cost of being a football to the big powers. It agreed in 1867 to demolish its fortifications in return for a guarantee of eternal neutrality. Since then German troops have wheeled across it in three wars.

German commanders took what they wanted and even forced Luxembourgers to serve in their armies; but this tiny doormat of Europe is beginning to bristle. It has found that neutrality doesn't pay.

"They are a little imperialistic now," Blackmer said. "They want a slice of Germany; that is they want the land, but not the Germans who live on it."

Luxembourg has raised

10,000 its prewar army of 300 men; this is really a token gesture, however, to give a legalis-tic basis to its claim that its soldiers should be treated as war prisoners rather than impressed into foreign conquering armies.

How long Luxembourgers could hold out in the event of could hold out in the event of another invasion attack is prob-lematical, unless they should be reinforced quickly. "They are wiring the old tun-nels again," said Blackmer.

In the last war Luxembourg served as the headquarters of Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army and the U. S. Ninth Air Force. It was saved from destruction in the Battle of the Bulge in 1944 and the people are now strongly pro-American. "There is no university here.

Luxembourgers used to send their sons to Germany for higher education," said Blackmer. "Now it is the dream of every boy to study in America.

LONG BEACH (CALIF.) PRESS-TELEGRAM Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

VES | NO | Rep. 31. 5. Per. Off. © 1949 by John 7, Dille Co. Answer to Question No. 1

No. Of course dividing time first with one parent, then the other is bad. But, as pointed out by Rev. Donald Harrington of the Community Church, N. Y., back of the divided time is the diverse personalities of the parents. He says, "The children are called upon to understand and co-operate with two peope who could not understand and co-operate with each other in the first place." Of course divorce is sometimes necessary for the interests of the children. But a child has a hard enough time in the "strug-gle" to become a human being in the happiest home.
