AMPUTEE BALL GAME

Unusual Sports Contest Slated for Polo Grounds

By HAL BOYLE

Anderson isn't worried do anything they can. about his own team.

But he is worried about the caliber of the enemy ball team that will trot into the Polo Grounds against his outfit the night of July 26. And, of course, he's fretting already about the attendance.

"Last year we drew only about 9000," he said indignantly. 'What do they think we play in -wheelchairs? This year we're hoping for 30,000."

The game is one of the most unusual sports events in New York. It'll be the 17th annual baseball contest between amputee war veterans, sponsored by the National Amputation Foundation.
"We're trying to raise $100,-
