Her Language: Dots and Dashes Claudette Robertson got interested in radio as insurance against losing contact with her Madison friends when she moves away, But "Before I knew it, I was fascinated with radio for its own sake," she exclains. "It's so exciting! It seems like every waking hour that's all we talk about--radio!" It's that way with a lot of radio amateurs.

This year 29 of the youngest in Madison or ianzed East high's Amateur Radio club with the aid of a physics teacher and his wife It's the only such club in Mad-ison and one of only nine high achood clubs in the state to have its own station and call letters. The members have a lot of fun, but the club is "not exactly a so-cue organization," explains Teach-er Advisor J. Henry Lugg, a licensed operator who is trustee of the station. The put ds study radio theory-

"radio is not a means of advertise-ment but of communication; it is rol an art but a science." Lugg not an art but a science." Lugg says firmely, the laws and rulings that govern its use, and work using their home and school sta- for them and established a system that prepares them to qualify for using their home and school sta- for them and established a system to regulate their use.

The Listener Talks Back

Already they've chatted with these activities, the government by Mr. and Mrs. Lugg, both li-tellow "hams" in many states, has reserved special frequencies censed operators.

form of gangman torture by let-ting hot steam from a locomotive shoot into someone's eyes; and over at Columbia Sam Wood will soon direct "No Sad Songs for Me" which concerns a woman dying of cancer.

Betty Grable has been getting Jots of lowdown on Harry James from Ed Mundy, who is working in "Wabash Ave." with her. Mundy was with the Mighty Haag circus when Harry's pa was a big-top band leader and his mother was mother was a trapeze performer. Harry himself started out as a contortionist before he started twisting himself around a trumpet. cidentally, there's a chance that Harry James will be dubbing in his own notes in "Young Man With a Horn," currently starring Kirk Douglas at Warners. But you won't see him because the tooting is supnosed to come from Kirk is supposed to come from Kirk.

Alice Faye and Phil Harris have just added a wing to their house for their two dotters. It has two bedrooms, nûrse's quarters, kitch-en, two baths, showers, etc.

Metro has postponed its planned production of "Lovely to Look At" (originally "Roberta"). Shelved it completely for at least a year. Which substantiates the blast we itemed about the mess it was in; its ridic changes and casting troubles.

About that wedding ring of Nora About that wooning ring at roca Flynn's; the half-inch band of baguette diamonds, set in plathuum has some round stones in the cfu-ter which speil out "Nora" on one side and "Dick" on the other. Purely a matter of taste, mind you. Purely a matter of tasie, mind you. Gienn Ford has had his contract at Columbia changed to a one-picture-a-year deal and that gives him a chance to do lots of outside fillums. His first under the new freedom will be with Ida Lupino in "For Services Render-ed," which she'll produce. Ida got out of her contract at 20th-Fox, too, so that she can devote most of her time to her own ventures. Sad news indeed: That Clara Sad news indeed: That Clara Kimball Young, whose great heav-
