Highboys Favored 250 Years Ago

Q. WHEN did highboys first come into use? E. B.

A. Highboys came into use in England during the reign of William and Mary, 1689-1702 The earliest examples had six, five or four legs. The origin of the name is not definitely known. In America the highboy was especially in style between 1690 and 1780.

Q. How many children did Cleopatra have? M. B. O. A. It is possible that the son of Cleopatra, who was known in history as Caesarion, was the child of Julius Caesar. the child of put to death by the direction of Octavian. The children of Cleopatra and Mar-cus Antonius were Alexander Hellos, who married Iotapa of Media; Cleopatra Selene and Ptolemy. Even-tually, Cleopatra Selene married Juba, the king of Mauretania. (The son, Ptolemy, succeeded his father about A.D. 19). The fate of Alexander Helios and his brother, Ptolemy, is not known.

Q. How many so-called universal languages have been devised? L. C. D.

A. The number is estimated at 200. The best known and the one which has made the greatest impression is Esperanto, invented by Dr. L. L. Zamenhof, a voucher a traveling man must show something.

Q. What are the requirements for membership in the D. A. R.? P. B.
A. The Daughters of the American Revolution is a society composed of women who are descendants of ancestors, any of whom "with unfailing loyalty rendered material aid to the cause of independence as a recognized patriot, as soldier or sailor, or as a civil officer in one of the several colonies or states."
