Q. WHO INVENTED the name "Liberia" for the Negro republic in Africa? C. E. P. A. The name was contrived by Ralph Gurley from the word "liberty." Gurley was an American philanthropist, and later director of the American Colonization Society, formed to colo-nize. Liberia with American

Q. When were trotting races first held in the United States? M. McE.

A. The first horse to be known as a trotter was Messen-ger, an English racing stallion ger, an English racing stands imported into Philadelphia in 1788. The first public trotting race took place in 1818. Mes-senger died of colic at Oyster Bay in 1808 and was buried with military honors.

Q. What is the history of the Logan Elm Tree near Circle-ville, Ohio? H. A. W.

A. It was under this tree that Lord Dunmore, colonial Governor of Virginia, made a treaty of peace with Chief Cornstalk of the Shawnees and Chief Logan of the Mingos, two years before the Revolution. Chief Logan declined to be present, but sent a message which is considered a classic of Indian oratory. The elm is now owned and cared for by the state of Ohio. Named for Chief Logan, it is 70 feet high and nearly 22 feet in circumference 6 feet above the ground. It has a crown spread of 148 feet. In recent years it has been severely damaged by storms. Seeds from this tree have been planted by the state forestry department, and more than 100 seedlings have been transplanted in 88 counties in Ohio with appropriate ceremo-

DEATH OF A REPORTER

Boyle Pays Last Tribute to Friend in Air Crash

By HAL BOYLE

But I do want to tell you something about one reporter, and why he was good.

His name was John G. Werk-ley. He and 12 other newsmen returning from the Netherlands East Indies died yesterday in the crash of a Royal Dutch Air-lines plane near Bombay, Several of the group had a need to write an obituary for a good reporter. wider fame than Jack Werkley.

But I'd like to tell you about him because I knew him long-

He had no background in this trade, craft, profession, game or business—this long nerve-ache for information called "newspaper work." His dad was a veteran railroad conductor. But somehow Jack got the news-paper virus early.

I first met him 18 years ago at the University of Missouri. Jack had gone there from his home in New Jersey—on a slen-der budget—because he'd heard Missouri had a good/journalism school

He was a slim, restless, energetic kid with a shock of unruly hair, a friendly smile that never rubbed off. We had adjoining rooms in a student dormitory. "I'm Jack would stay up half the night reading the lives of great newspapermen and great new-papers. Daytime he would skip classes to prowl the streets look-ing for items for the school's daily paper.

He was a natural newspaper-man, a star from the start. Reting to know people, a humorous, offnand way of meeting them for the first time and making them feel like they had known him for a long time. And they usually told him what he wanted to know. Perhans because he ENG-Seat the Clock to know. Perhaps because he was such a good listener.

He could—and did—cover anything from a fast-breaking crime story to the Texas City explosion was such a good listener. He could—and did—cover anyor the State Department diplomatic beat in Washington. · He had the knack of putting ing.

Emphatically no. save Drs. Emily and Arthur Rautman in MENTAL HYGIENE. They say that when adults meet a four or five-year-old, they take over or five-year-old, they take over the whole show, talk patron-izingly, praise the "little dar-ling" then flounce off, leaving the kid either in a panic or wanting to be a "show-off." Adults having a quiet, homey restaurant meal with their five-year-old middenly, have the year-old suddenly have the whole scene disrupted by some passing stranger stopping to rumple up the child's hair and talk baby talk. From then on the child is either a "show-off" or refuses to eat. These expa-rienced authorities beg others to let parents rear their own chli-dren in their own way. For that
