Q ARE METER MACHINES

for stamping mail ever sold? S. R. M.

A. The meter itself, a detachable unit, cannot by law be sold but must be rented under the responsibility of the manufacturer. The rest of the machine, which operates the meter and seals envelopes, is usually sold

Q. Were the "Canterbury Tales" printed during Chaucer's lifetime? C. McB.

A. Chaucer died in 1400, and did not live to see his work in print. The tales were written about 1387 but were not printed until 1475. In the author's day they were hand written on

YARN ABOUT ZIEGFELD

'Great Glorifier' Ordered Outsized Christmas Tree

By BILLY ROSE

Q. What city contains the greatest number of art treas. YOU'VE PROBABLY heard a lot which seldom gets talked about ures? T. R. S. of yarns about the Great any more. And so, clear the decks and Lingtyness here's of yarns about the Great any more. And so, clear the decks and Linotypes—here's "How come?" the lady with the funny hat wants to know. "Didn't I know the impresario?"

dining room at the Ambassador Hotel. On Christmas Eve call for my mather take her to the for my mother, take her to the hotel, and have them serve her a dinner with all the trimmings. Incidentally, I bought her a present that I want you to hang on the tree, and I'm sending it up by plane. Another thing, the old lady likes fiddle music . . . "

Well, the manager had been with Ziegfeld long enough to know what the maestro meant when he said, "Decorate it real fancy," and so he spent $8000 to dress the tree, not counting the fee of the scenic designer who came on from New York to aramong the ornaments. And among the glittery gewgaws was a pair of diamond earrings that Flo had sent up from Flor-

On Christmas Eve, a limou-sine picked up the showman's mother at her apartment and took her to the Ambassador. Dinner began with terrapin fresh-flown from Chesapeake

"Mr. Ziegfeld will phone you at your apartment a little later to wish you a Merry Christmas," said the manager. Then he unhooked the diamond earrings, handed them to the blind woman and escorted her to the limousine.

Answer to Question No. 2

No. At least policeman Andy Hoak and three fellow officers of Van Nuys, near Los Angeles, didn't think so. They organized the Optimist Youth Center and with the aid of the teenagers remodeled a neglected building for after school activities. Huge fireplace, soft drinks, dim lights, dancing with records and an or-chestra — (all for 25c cover charge when they can afford it.) Saturday night is dress up night, no denim trousers for the boys or slacks for the girls, 100 teen-agers attended the opening— profit $10.22.
