Laura and Eugene Pizzuto, Madison artists, are having a "Mr. and Mrs. art show at the Daniels gallery, 416 G. Gilman st. Both are graduates of the University of Wisconsin art education department.

They are also among the Wisconsin artists represented in the Denver Art museum's 55th annual exhibition. Others are Robert Knipschildt, art education student; Donald Anderson, art education teacher; and Robert Hodgell, Wisconsin graduate. Hodgell has two easels in the show, which will close Aug. 30.

Hodgell and Anderson also have paintings accepted for hanging in the Old Northwest Territory show at the Illinois State fair, which opens Aug. 12. Other Wisconsin artists in that show are Aaron Bohrod, university artist-in-residence; and Dean Meeker, of the art education faculty.

Fayley Flynn, formerly of WIBU, will do WBBM's "Football Scoreboard" show immediately after each of that station's grid-cast from her contract with Warner Brothers and Louis B. Mayer has signed a new long-term contract as vice-president and production chief of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Acquanetta, film actress whose mother was an Arapaho Indian, will head the Frontier Days parade at Cheyenne, Wyo., Wednesday and Friday.

The Ringling Bros.-Barnum and Bailey circus open its nine-day Chicago run Saturday.

Beatrice Lillie and Jack Haley end their Chicago run of "Inside U. S. A." with Saturday night's performance. That will leave Chicago with only one legitimate show—"Mr. Roberts."

Sir Adrian Boult will conduct the Chicago Symphony orchestra at Ravinia beginning tonight, and Paul Brecht will conduct the Grant Park Symphony Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

Play Time Records to Be Cut for Kids

"Play Timers," the girls and boys who gather around the radio at 5 p. m. daily to hear WIBA will have a treat Thursday when Jerry Bartell, who conducts "Play Time," will appear in person to make recordings with the youngsters.

From 1 to 4 p. m. Jerry will be in the children's shops at Manchester's to meet the youngsters and make a short record with each one.

The free recording will provide a permanent present for each Play Timer to take home and keep. Any girl or boy wishing to
