

Leading Players in U.W. Show

Colette Slightam, Madison, and Bruce Kanitz, Milwaukee, will have the leading roles in 'The Philadelphia Story' when Wisconsin Players present the play Thursday through next Saturday at the Wisconsin Union theater.

Don Sinako will move his song show to WIBA in September. The grapevine circuit hears.

Ezio Pinza will turn back to opera for a while Monday, Aug. 15, when he appears on the 'Great Artists' series over WIBA. His program will include 'La Calunnia' from 'The Barber of Seville.'

Charles Winniker, famed Wisconsin actor, will have a top role in 'A Mother for May,' Columbia picture starring William Holden and Barbara Hale. He will play a barker at an old-time medicine show.

Horace Heidt is planning to open his stage revue, 'The Kids Break Through,' on Broadway early in 1950 after a run at a Hollywood theater.

Marquis Childs, State Journal columnist, will be one of the guests on 'Who Said That' over WIBA at 9 p. m. Sunday.

Sen. Wayne L. Morse (R-Ore.), native of Madison, will be guest panelist on 'Eternal Light' via WMAQ at 10:30 a. m. Sunday.

Eddie Albert has signed an exclusive NBC contract covering radio and television activities. His first show will be a five-a-week daytime variety program beginning early next month.

SIDE LIGHT: At one point in the reading of 'Anne of the Thousand Days' at the Wisconsin Union theater Thursday night, Maud Scheerer's reading-stand went down with a bang.

It reminded her of a similar incident at Bascom theater several years ago, she told her audience.

After the performance, she said, someone asked a stagehand why he hadn't fixed the stand. 'I did,' he said, 'but I didn't know she was going to wrestle it.'

NEW YORK RECITAL: Julie and Juliette Gerke, twin pianists who are studying at the Juilliard School of Music in New York City, will give a recital Monday in the Juilliard Concert hall. The program will be broadcast.

Before entering the school, the twins played at the Kiwanis International convention in Atlantic City.

FM RECEPTION: A letter from Jack Griggs, Darlington, Dear Mr. Doudna:

On reading your 'FM Lengthens its Horizons' in the July 31 State Journal, I thought you would be interested in the list of FM stations I have been able to get on my $39 FM set, using an inside antenna. It has taken a lot of exploring, but I must admit it is hardly worth while, for out of the 57 stations listed, there are only 16 that one could listen to and get a continuous program. I notice on your list you have WHSS, Wausau, which I have not. I seem to have missed WFHR, Wisconsin Rapids.

Once in a great while it is strange that the longest distance station WELD, Columbus, O., can be heard quite distinctly after 9 p. m. The distance is about 400 miles, whereas Milwaukee
