SEWARD, Pa.-(A) - The corn the chicken rejected is 20 feet high on the John A. Carlson farm here and still growing.

The 84-year-old farmer is bewildered by his gargantuan crop.

"I bought the corn to feed the chickens," he explained. "They wouldn't even give the stuff a try -to big. So I planted it to fill an empty space in the garden. I don't even know what kind it is."
