41 New Polio Cases Reported in State (By United Press)

Forty-one new cases of polio boosted the state's total to 436 cases this weekend, the state Discussion health board announced Monday. Twelve of the new cases were reported from Milwaukee. Ashland was the next hardest hit with four victims, while Oshkosh and Wisconsin Rapids had two each. Townships and communities which had only one polio case were: West Allis; Longwood town-ship, Clark county; Beaver Dam; Gordon township, Douglas; Forest, Gordon township, Douglas; Forest, township, Polk; Burlington; Bur-lington township, Racine, Shawano; Scandinavia township, Waupaca county; Vinland township, Winnebago; and Marshall township tomobile from a nearby farmer to use for parts. They started on the return trip to town, Mathias in the car and Yeakley driving the tow truck but outraged bees, nestling under front seat of the car, stung Mathias.

Next, they stung Yeakley, wh went to his partner's rescue. The farmer who sold them the car sent his two dogs to rout the bees but the bees routed the dogs instead. They also stung the farm-

When last reported, the bees still were in charge of the auto seat, which was abandoned be
