EARL WILSON

Now that I'm back home, I want to pass on to you. P. R. (Precious Reader) some smiles I collected in Europe. The boas of Fitzrov's famous pub in London has this sign over his bar:

If I rest, I rust; If I trust, I bust. No rest, no rust, No trust, no bust.

A COP IN VENICE knew less about art than me.

Art-lovers there planned a great exhibit of the works of Giovanni Bellini, famous 15th Century painter, and went for a police permit a few months ago.

The cop asked, "Who's putting on this exhibit?" "We members of the committee," said the chairman.
"I'm sorry," said the cop sternly, brandishing the book of regulations. "If you're showing Bellini's paintings, he'll have to come for the per-mit himself!"

In Germany several WACS were anxious to return to America immediately.

They said the German girls are so anxious to get married to Americans - and hence so loose with their charms-that a WAC doesn't stand a chance with a GI!

FLYING OVER GERMANY on the airlift, an American flier looked down at a puny

German forest and said: They call them forests, but where I come from-Texaswe'd call 'em parks."

THE SWISS LOVE FREE-DOM and enjoy twitting the Germans about controlling every individual's life. As the Swiss tell it:
