Hollywood

By Edith Gwynn

Told you they were having script trouble on "A Life of Her Own" which was supposed to have Lana Turner emoting in it by this time under Vincente Minelli's direction. Lana took a look at the latest version of her "comeback" opus turned her pretty nose up in the air, and refuses to show up for work until pulitery more changes are made in the story.

Comic Billy de Wolf and Amy Arnall, long time romancers, have set their wedding date for New Year's day—in Miami.

Katie Hepburn wants Edmond O'Brien to be with her in "As You Like It," which she's about to do for N.Y.'s Theater Guild. O'Brien, usually involved with mayhem on the screen, is no novice at Shakespeare. He was in Laurence Olivier's production of "Romeo and Juliet," with Orson Welles in "Julius Caesar."

Viveca Lindfors, home from Sweden to join her new mate, director Don Siegel.

Such hectic goings on over the weekend! Dotty Lamour's shding to launch her new wholesale dress business was a big success and the "samples" shown were lovely. Under $30 and "give the working girl a chance to dress like a movie star" she says. Saw Betty Hutton there—thinner and peppier than she's been in years. Also Lucille Ball with Desi Arnaz—and she in a dress fun stole, and shoes of pink beige the exact shade of her hair. Gabbad with Anna Roosevelt, Mitch Leisen, Connie Moore, and the Myri Blums, who said the only things that are a "bargain" in Europe are shampoos, hair-dos and maids. Everything else is a gyp.

Holy Name Society to Meet at St. Bernard's

The Holy Name society of St. Bernard's Catholic church will hold its first fall meeting in the school hall, 2430 Atwood ave., at 8 tonight.

All men of the parish are urged to attend the meeting. A full program of entertainment is scheduled, including the showing of a sound-color film.

Officers of the society include the Rev. Arnold Lehman, spiritual adviser; Wayne Hay, president; Art Vollenberg, first vice-president; Robert Curtis, second vice-president; Jerry Bauers, treasurer; and Robert Kubicek, secretary.

Alma Carroll, the beautiful starlet married to up-coming writer George Giroux, will be a Ma in the spring.

At the enormous cocktail party that Marguerite Chapman and Bently Ryan tossed, we caught Maggie slipping up behind just about everyone and snapping very informal pictures with her trusty little flash-bulb camera. Gringer Rogers and Greg Bautzer a two there—but they left before the hosts served a Mexican dinner to the Ste Martins (Angela Greene), and Paul Winans (she must have gotten back most of the jools that "Raffles" Denis lifted from her—because she was blazing), the Kysers, Carmichael, the Kay Kyser, Johnny Meyer and Patti Lydon, Myrna Dell with Pat di Cicco, Tommy Harmon and Elyse Knox, the Bill Lundigans—and many others.

Joan Crawford gave a gorgeous dinner-dance for about 80. You can bet it was a fun party, because we noted that the Jack Warners stayed till 3 a.m. (When Jack stays up late—that's NEWS!)
