TONIGHT

6:00-KFI—After 16 years as one of the nation's favorite shows, the "Music Hall" will give its last performance tonight. On hand for this final broadcast will be Nelson Eddy and Dorothy Kirsten, who will close the show with the duet, "Indian Love Call."

7:00-KECA — Working frantically before a change of tide upsets his plans, David Harding, "Counterspy," daringly rescues the wife of a world famous diplomat from a yacht in the Danube.

7:00-KNX—James Hilton has selected one of his own works for presentation tonight. Van Heflin stars as the plain man of our times who is called upon to be a hero. His idealism, his courage and never failing humor make him "So Well Remembered."

7:00-KFI—Perry Como and the Fontane sisters will regale us with songs while Fibber and Molly fill the guest spot on tonight's "Supper Club."

7:30-KHJ — "Red Ryder" overcomes a threat and a crook ends up in jail when they visit "Stallion Valley."

8:30-KNX—A yellow bird-like claw is found near the body of a young woman and provides a clue for "Mr. Keen, Tracer of Lost Persons," when he probes the "Yellow Talon Murder Case."
