Single Records Worth Having Special Events

(State Journal Music Editor)

Among the pleasant contributions to the record libraries in Columbia's album of "My Encores" by Bidu Sayao.. Her lovely voice is especially good in French and Spanish songs
—"My Friend," "If You Wish," "Le Nelumbo," "The Slave Market Girl Song," Two Popular Verses." The set also includes "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny" and "Think on Me."

Columbia also has some engaging listening in an album of Strauss waltzes recorded the Philadelphia orchestra under Eugene Ormandy. The 12-inch discs hold "The Beautiful Blue Danube" and "Tales from the Vienna Woods."

Eugene Goossens conducts the Cincinnati Symphony in a capable reading of "The Pines of Rome" in a Victor setavailable in both conventional and 45 RPM.

They to pass through many dangers be-The Egyptians knew nothing about the turning of the earth which gives us night and day. They saw the sun rise in the east and set in the west. To them it seemed that the sun must go clear around the earth, lighting the Underworld on its trip from west to east. Here is a story which was told: When the sun sets in the west, it is met by the spirits of the dead. They pull it in a boat along a river in the Underworld, from one 4:80 4:15 4:30 4:45 country to another. There are gates to each country, and huge serpents at the gates send out

People in Egypt were told that they would be able to see their parents and other relatives when hey reached the kingdom of Osiris. A bright picture of the Underworld was painted in words on a manuscript which has been found. This is the meaning of the manuscript:
