A Gem for Bette's Collection

Observing national Newspaper Week, actress Bette Davis, in New York, examines a first copy of the "Hartford Courant," part of her collection of early Americana. "As the oldest continuously published paper in the U. S.," Bette noted, "The 'Courant.' founded in 1764, is a symbol of America's precious freedom

Yost said. "The reason we admir St. Patrick is that he, too, was an explorer and bringer of light in the face of considerable dangers." And like them, Yost said, organic chemists have "sought for and found things and with a right good will." Any evil applications as added, "will be due not to them out to ambitious men of evil in-
