DIAL LITES_TONIGHT

5:00-KECA-"Nipper proves himself" in this episode of "Challenge of the Yukon" when he tries desperately to save Judy from a savage wolf pack.

6:00-KNX-Joseph Cotten plays his original screen role of a young artist who is inspired to success by a girl who doesn't exist. This is the unusual love story of "A Portrait of Jennie" on Radio Theatre.

8:00__KHJ_Every shot counts when a girl sharpshooter gets into trouble ... to find a way out of the difficulties they "Let George Do It."

9:00-KFI-Met soprano, Bidu Sayao, will sing the "Children's Letter," a prayer for peace, written by young children and set to music by Celius Dougherty, as guest of the "Telephone Hour."

9:00-KNX-Burdened by a guilty conscience, Larry Haines figures in a weird revenge plot that results in "A Corpse for Halloween" . . . a proper "spook" for Inner Sanctum.
