TIP O' THE MORNING: All indications point to a gala opening for Madison's season of civic music at 8:15 tonight in the Masonic auditorium—not only a fine concert but a heavy attendance. Tip: Better get there early for choice seats.

Mrs. Bettina Bjorksten, who will be soloist with the Madison Civic Symphony orchestra tonight, will go to Lancaster, Pa., later in the week. She will appear in a Goethe centennial concert Saturday at Franklin and Marshall college.

Harold Klutz, who directed a WHA orchestra while he was a University of Wisconsin student, is the violist of Chicago's new chamber group, the Roosevelt College string quartet. The quartet will open its season Nov. 16 in Fullerton hall.

Josef Meier, director and leading actor of the Black Hills Passion Play, now in Chicago, is the same man who played the Christ-Us in the drama here in 1937. The Chicago production in the Opera House is sponsored by the Chicago Kiwanis club. It will continue through Nov. 12.

Jeanne McKenna, WBBM singer, is the same girl whose piano playing and blues-singing made her popular on WTMJ a few years ago.

Jan Garber's illness forced cancellation of his Orpheum date. So Manager Hugh Flannery has a booked Clyde McCoys' band for Wednesday. A Charlie Chan picture will complete the bill.

Dan Amodeo describes Jimmy Durante's singing as "asthma set to music."

Guy Lombardo predicts that "Every Night's Like New Year's Eve" will be on the Hit Parade soon.

Movie: A German-language film, "M." will be shown at Hillier foundation at 8 tonight as part of the "Cinema '49" series. Directed by Fritz Lang, the picture was a forerunner of this decade's psychological murder films.

CLINIC: The annual mid-winter clinic sponsored by the Wisconsin School Music assn. and the University of Wisconsin will be held here Jan. 5 through 7. Emmett R. Saig, acting director of university study, will be chairman of the university committee. Frederick ence (WFOV): "Mayan Culture."

9:30 a. m. — People Are Funny (WIBA): the secret of true relaxation.
9:45 p. m. — This Is Our Town (WISC): new series presented by U. S. Chamber of Commerce.
