6:00-KFI-Linda Darnell and Paul Douglas, recreate the characters they played in the film "A Letter to Three Wives." One of the year's outstanding box office successes, it is revived by the "Screen Guild Theater."

6:00-KNX-Red Skelton finally "dood it" . . . he is taking a fling at serious drama and appears on the tense and gripping tale "The Search for Isabel," the original "Suspense" show tonight.

6:30-KFI-"Archie" goes hi-brow and invites Edgar Allen Poe to address the Ladies Literary Society at "Duffy's Tavern" when he finds his favorite poet has been dead for many years he pinch-hits with a genteel plumber who fills in with an "Ode to a Lead Pipe."

7:30 KECA-Father Foster reverses his opinion of Oogie Pringle and his "High School Hot Licks" and winds up sponsoring them on the local radio station during a "Date With Judy."

7:30—KNX—"Skippy Hollywood Theater" which features stage and screen personalities in original scripts, will be heard as a CBS presentation at this time each week.

9:30-KHJ-A four-ring circus can be lots of fun, but when blackmail and murder occur in the troupe "Peter Salem" discovers it is not healthy entertainment.

10:30-KNX-President Harry S. Truman's address from St. Paul, Minn., marks the last day of the Minnesota State Centennial celebration.
