TOMORROW

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. No responsibility essumed for last-minute changes which semetimes are made.

DIAL LITES-TONIGHT

6:00-KFI-Chester A. Riley decides to take a Red Cross lifesaving course but winds up in the wrong room and becomes a student of baby care instead . . . this is another crisis in "The Life of Riley."

6:30-KNX-"Lum and Abner" begin their fall season on the air with a heated discussion of the length of their friendship. With neither admitting the other is right things come to a boiling point.

8:00-KECA-When a wealthy, attractive matron walks into Brad Runyan's apartment and says she is being followed, it doesn't take the "Fat Man" long to figure out the reason . . . a jealous husband.

8:30-KHJ-The state of American counterespionage operations at the present time will be discussed by Rear Adm. Ellis M. Zacharias on "Secret Missions" tonight.

9:00-KECA-Ozzie and Thorny are determined to overrule their wives' plans and hold their champ bowling match the night the girls are counting on them for another party. This makes for a fast moving half hour on "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet."

10:00-KHJ-Carlton E. Morse will devote a portion of each broadcast of "I Love a Mystery" to his Christmas campaign for a nation-wide support of an international Santa Claus project to provide clothes, and toys for millions of war-suffering youngsters throughout the world.

By far the leader was, "I want to be a railroad engineer." In this day of fast automobiles and jet airplanes this answer was unexpected. The occupation question, of course, was aimed at the boys of the club, with the girls to be taken care of later.

It is an interesting fact that, through several generations, the big fellows in their overalls and caps who sit at the throttle of a locomotive and speed it along its
