CURT MASSEY AND MARTHA TILTON, STARS OF CBS' "Curt Massey Time," are guests of conductor-arranger Ted Dale on CBS' "Carnation Contented Hour" Sunday. Massey signs "How It Lies" and "Dreamer's Holiday." Miss Tilton contributes "Meadows of Heaven" and "Comin' Through the Rye." The two singers join in "Would You Like to Take a Walk?" and "There's No Business Like Show Business." Ted Dale conducts the orchestra in "Stardust" and "El Relicario." Charles Cottingham produces. KTSA-9 P.M.

OSCAR-WINNER JANE WYMAN STARS in "A Farewell to Arms," Ernest Hemingway's classic story of love and disillusionment in the first World War, on CBS' "Family Hour of Stars" Sunday. Miss Wyman plays an English nurse who is sent to the Italian front. At an English field hospital, she cares for an American soldier, whose bitterness and despair over his war experiences are ultimately soothed by a consuming love for his benefactress. KTSA-5 P.M.

JOSEPH FUCHS, VIOLINIST, AND Leonard Rose, cellist, both frequent guests of conductor Mihal Plastro on CBS' "The Symphony," join in a double solo arrangement of "Salut demeure" from Gounod's opera "Faust," Sunday. Other works are "Cadez" by Valverde, "I Have Lost My Love" from Gluck's "Orpheus and Eurydice," a medley from the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "H.M.S. Pinafore," Bocherini's "Minuet," the finale movement from Mendelssohn's Symphony No. 3 in A Minor (the "Scotch") and "Impudence" of Finck. The host is Frank Knight. KTSA-4:30 P.M.

DICK POWELL DROPS IN ON COCA-COLA'S EDGAR Bergen-Charlie McCarthy Show Sunday night to help Bergen persuade Charlie to give up his ambition to become a "private eye." Unable to dissuade Charlie, for whom he has loftier plans, Bergen enlists Powell's aid in proving to his wooden-headed friend that the private eye business—far from being a glamorous or exciting profession—actually is one of the most humdrum jobs in the world. From the moment Charlie enters Powell's private-eye office, however, the joint starts jumping. Bullets fly, bodies fall, blondes scream, and the atmosphere gets chillier than a Charlie Chan movie. KTSA-7 P.M.

"WHAT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES WAS married in the White House?" A brand new 1950 four-door sedan will be awarded to the first person called by John Reed King, emcee of ABC's Chance of a Lifetime audience participation program, who can give him the correct answer. King, who asked the question during last Sunday night's broadcast in a telephone call to a listener, will continue to place calls around the country during the half-hour program until someone identifies correctly the one U.S. Chief Executive who fits the description. King further explained that Woodrow Wilson was not the president in question, stating that Wilson, although married while in office, was not married in the Executive Mansion itself. KABC-8:30 P.M.

MASON GROSS, PROVOST of Rutgers University, is chairman and John Everett and Eugene O. Golob are guests in a discussion of "The Philosophy of History" by Friedrich von Schlegel, on CBS' "Invitation to Learning" Sunday. The Colmans, who first guested on the Benny show on Dec. 9, 1945, and made two calls last season, will participate with the Waukegan wit in a home situation sketch which will pick up their hilarious radio shenanigans. THERE'S NO QUESTION about it—Dexter Franklin is one of the most generous guys alive—particularly when he FINDS a gift to give to his girl chum, Corliss Corliss is the teen-ager who convulses audiences every Sunday night on "Meet Corliss Archer." Mr. Archer (Fred Shields) buys Mrs. Archer (Irene Tedrow) a lovely gift—then loses it. Who finds it? Dexter, of course. Dexter, played by Sam Edwards, doesn't realize the gift belongs to the man who he hopes will be his father-in-law in the dim future. So he gives the gift to Corliss, who is Janet Waldo in real life, and there the complications start. "Meet Corliss Archer" is announced by John Hiestand, and produced by Tom McAvity. Felix Mills directs the orchestra. KTSA-8 P.M.

Mel Blanc Receiving Tremendous Fan Mail

Mel Blanc, who plays the parrot, Jack Benny's violin teacher and other roles on CBS' "Jack Benny Program," is receiving more than 500 fan letters a week as a result of a running gag involving him on the Waukegan wit's show. Since the series returned to the air Sept. 11, Blanc has been phoning Benny on each Sunday's broadcast, asking for a part and auditioning a suggested role on the wire.

New Sunday Show Debuts

A gay Sunday afternoon musical variety show makes its debut at 2 p.m. Sunday when Freddy Martin's "Showtime From Hollywood" is heard on KTSA.

The musical fare, by Freddy Martin's orchestra, besides including Martin's distinctive arrangements of the classics, will feature novelty ditties, popular ballads and South-of-the-border tunes.

The show features the brilliant piano playing of Barclay Allen, the voices of Stuart Wade, Clyde Rogers, Glenn Hughes and the ensemble singing arrangements of the "Martin Men."

Sunday afternoon, Martin's concert arrangements of "In the Hall of the Mountain King" from the Peer Gynt Suite, and "Waltz of the Flowers" from the Nutcracker Suite will be heard.

Also on the program are "La Golondrina" and "Rainy Night in Rio."

Godfrey Gets What He Asks

One of radio's most unusual song rehearsals took place the other day on KTSA's "Arthur Godfrey Program." On Fridays, Godfrey broadcasts from his farm home in Virginia, with the rest of the cast up in New York.

Godfrey asked maestro Archie Bleyer if he could sing a song with the Chordettes. Bleyer reminded Godfrey that he had not rehearsed a song with the girls, but nothing stops the irrepressible Arthur. He called for a rehearsal right on the air.

And with Godfrey in Virginia, the Chordettes in New York with Bleyer's band, they "rehearsed" and finally sang "My Gal Sal."
