NEW YORK (A) The American Broadcasting Company has emerged from the recent radio talent wars with bruises healed

A network spokesman predicts ABC's gross billings for sale of radio time this year will equal or surpass last year's all-time high ber of raids of its own plus some brand new programs and spon-

ABC was somewhat like an innocent bystander struck by stray bricks in a fight between fleighbors during the talent battle between the Columbia Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Company.

ABC quietly went to work plugging the gaps and claims to be in better position now than when it all started so far as gross business is concerned.

ABC's heaviest losses were Bing Crosby and Groucho Marx to CBS and Theatre Guild on the Air. and Welcome Traveler to NBC.

But in the midst of the NBC-CBS feud. Art Linkletter's Houseparty moved from CBS to ABC. but CBS announced Linkletter and his show would move back to CBS Jan. 3 bringing CBS $1.500,000. After the first move. ABC also signed up Ozzie and Harriet Nelson who had parted with their sponsors on CBS. and found a new sponsor for them. with their sponsors on CBS, and found a new sponsor for them.
One of the biggest tonics for ABC was getting $1,500,000 a year daytime radio account of a cigaret company that switched from Mutual cigaret comp from Mutual.
