Against the four heart con-tract West made a normal lead. Without reading further, what card would you play from the dummy (the North hand), the king or the jack? Of course you can see that both the ace and the queen are in the East hand, but I you did not know they were there, which card would you play? If you play either one of them you are wrong. The play Mrs. Sobel made was the six spot. She played it so quickly that East without stopping to think, played the seven. Now there is no way that East and West can defeat
