The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the breedcesters. DIAL LITES-TONIGHT

6:00-KNX-Lucille Ball and her husband, Desi Arnaz, will team up in "The Red-headed Woman," the tense drama presented on "Suspense" tonight. Miss Ball plays the part of an embittered stenographer who absconds with the company pay roll . . . in her flight she gets mixed up with a bank robber who engages her in a wild battle for the possession of a gun.

7:00-KFI-"The Chesterfield Star of the Week" will be a Hollywood actor who is appearing in a Broadway hit. Perry Como joins his guest to play a few scenes from the play and then will call for identification of the star.

7:30-KFI-The "Dragnet" drama tonight depicts the capture of a criminal who cons elderly ladies out of their money by pretending romantic interest in them.

9:00-KECA-Vice President Alben W. Barkley will be the guest of honor and speak in behalf of the National Kid's Day Foundation. In conjunction with the Kiwanis they will endeavor to focus attention on the accomplishments of youth in this country and Canada. Other high lights of the star-studded broadcast will be the appearance of Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Edgar Bergen, Walter Winchell and other luminaries who donate their talents to this worthy cause.

9:30-KHJ-"Peter Salem's" suspicions are aroused when a supposedly murdered man turns up alive, and he follows through to solve the "Affair of the Left-handed Limp.

Women's Conservative Play Would Win This Contract

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY Written for NEA Bervice

MOST men will tell you that women do not play bridge as well as men do. This week I am giving you some hands that I have seen women play and you can judge for yourself.

42 ₹75 • K1098 753 ₹ J9 people into tournament bridge than any other person in the country. She told me recently that one of the most difficult things to teach in bridge is the rule about finessing and she brought out an interesting point. "When you teach a man how to take a finesse in bridge," sa Lulu, "he loves it because it Lulu, "he loves it because it is a gamble. But women generally do not like to gamble. They look around for a safer way to make around for a safer way to make with the ace when East puts on variations.
