LUCILLE BALL, AS "LIZ COOPER," IS worried about her maid's romance with the mailman, because he always takes her to a drive-in theater on a motorcycle, during the "My Favorite Husband" broadcast, Friday, Nov. 20, 1929. Following a run contribution to the good will of "You Bet Your Life" comedy November 18, at 7:30 p.m., over CBS, Liz finally solves the problem by turning over the house to the maid for a complete evening. But she doesn't tell her hubby "George," and the mix-up that follows finds the Coopers in jail. Lucille Ball is heard in the starring role, with Richard Denning as her "favorite husband." Ruth Perrott is the maid. Bob Lemond announces, and Wilbur Hatch's orchestra supplies the musical background. KTSA-7:30 p.m.
