

Murrow Voices Second Album of History Records

Columbia Records, Inc., has completed production and soon will release "I Can Hear It Now," Volume II, with C.B.S. Reporter Edward R. Murrow as narrator, it was announced Monday by Goddard Lieberman, executive vice-president of Columbia Records. The release covers the 1945-1949 period in world history.

The second volume of "I Can Hear It Now" is described by Murrow as "the story of the desperate and sometimes agonizing search for peace, of the first three years of the atomic age, of the phenomenon of the unsought world leadership suddenly thrust upon the average American, and of the bizarre sideshows which kept slightly bewildered citizens from losing the resilience which is the very core of their strength."

It was prepared by Murrow in collaboration with Fred W. Friendly, prominent radio and television producer-writer. It was produced for Columbia by J. G. Guide.

Volume II opens with V-J Day celebrations from New York, San Francisco, Washington, London and Moscow and continues through the 1948 presidential campaign, and into 1949. It contains the voices of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman, Winston Churchill, Fiorello H. La Guardia, Thomas E. Dewey, Bernard Baruch, Clement R. Attlee, George Marshall, Walter Winchell, H. V. Kaltenborn, Dwight D. Eisenhower, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jawaharlal Nehru, Howard W. Hughes, James C. Petillo, Marshal Tito, Andrei Y. Vishinsky and many others.

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

LUIGI DECLINES THANKSGIVING INVITATIONS FROM his classmates in expectation of Pasquale's hospitality, then settles down to a hotdog snack with a friendless Chicago newsboy, during KTSa-CBS' "Life With Luigi," starring J. Carrol Naish, which moves to a new time Tuesday, 3 p.m., instead of 8:30 p.m. as formerly Alan Reed plays Pasquale. The cast also includes Mary Shipp, Jody Gilbert, Hans Conried, Ken Peters and Joe Forte. Mac Benoff directs. Lyn Murray conducts the music. KTSa-8 P.M.

THE EVIL INFLUENCE OF TOM MORLEY STRIKES again Tuesday as Suzanne unleashes her bitterness towards a man she once loved, on "This Is Nora Drake" over KTSa-CBS at 1:30 p.m. KTSa-1:30 P.M.

"DO OUR CHURCHES OFFER A SOUND BASIS FOR Faith and Living?" That will be the question debated on KABC-ABC's America's Town Meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Participants in the discussion will include Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, minister of Christ Church (Methodist) in New York City; Dr. Irwin Edman, professor of philosophy, Columbia University, and author of "Philosopher's Quest"; Virginia Peterson, lecturer and book reviewer, and author of "Polish Profile" and "Beyond This Shore"; and Dr. Frederick Wertham, psychiatrist and author, director of the Quaker Emergency Readjustment Center in New York. Moderator on the broadcast will be George V. Denny, Jr., president of Town Hall, Inc. KABC-7:30 P.M.

THE S.S. BRUNO SAILS UNDER THE SIGN OF THE double cross, in "Maracas" on CBS' "Escape" Tuesday (KTSa, 8:30 p.m.), as a holdup of illegal rifles is discovered, a would-be murderer is murdered, an explosive to blow up the ship is found and the captain tries to sell the guns to rebels. The script is by John and Gwen Bagni. William N. Robson directs and produces "Escape." KTSa-8:30 P.M.

AN IMMIGRANT'S VERSION OF THE FIRST THANKSGIVING will be offered in the comedy, "Us Pilgrims," Tuesday on WOAI-NBC's "Cavalcade of America" at 7 p.m. George Tobias will be starred as Baaraczek and Peter Donald featured as Bauer in this third annual presentation of the play. The story is related in a night school where prospective citizens are studying American history. Assertive Baaraczek tells the tale, with many prompting interruptions by Bauer. Baaraczek's facts are scrambled a little, and his basic English is confused even more, but he has a sound concept of the Pilgrim principles. Frank Gabrielson wrote the script, which has been used in schools and colleges because of its fresh approach to a familiar theme. WOAI-7 P.M.

SHARP WITS AND THINKING CAPS WILL BE NEEDED to solve the "Secret Saying," on KTSa-CBS' rapid-fire quiz show, "Hit the Jackpot," Tuesday at 9 p.m. over station KTSa. Bill Cullen is emcee. Al Goodman is the maestro. KTSa-9 P.M.

THE AMAZING ACTION OF A MAN WHO SENT HIMSELF A FUNERAL WREATH a few minutes before his own murder puzzles Inspector Hearststone, in "The Funeral Wreath Murder Clue" on CBS' "Mystery Theater," Tuesday at 7 p.m. Alfred Shirley is heard as inspector Hearststone. "Mystery Theater" is produced by Frank and Anne Hummert. KTSa-7 P.M.

The Department of Defense's "Time for Defense" will mark Thanksgiving Day with a special program over KABC titled "Recipe for 20,000 Turkeys." Plans for the program, now in preparation, include interviews with the armed services cooks—who will tell radio listeners how they prepared a Thanksgiving Day menu six months in advance, about the turkey-buy in Chicago, about the cooking plans. Under the direction of Lt. Col. George S. Howard, the official 80-piece Air Force Orchestra will play "Great Day Coming Manana" and "Merry Makers Dance." Other musical selections will include "The Last Mile Home," sung by baritone Master Sgt. Glenn Darwin; "Your Land and My Land," by Darwin and the male chorus, and "Thanksgiving Hymn," sung by the women's all-mixed chorus. KABC-9 P.M.

Heatter to Appear in Colman Film

Gabriel Heatter's radio fans soon will see him "in action" in the new film "Champagne For Caesar."

Heatter, whose news commentaries are aired every week day over the coast-to-coast Mutual network, will be seen in the motion picture just as he regularly appears before the MBS microphones for his mighty broadcasts.

Ronald Colman is starred in the picture, and film crews obtained the Heatter sequences right in his broadcasting studio as he aired his programs.

'Henry' to Play Santa On Thanksgiving Day

Star of NBC's "The Aldrich Family," will make his annual Santa Claus trip to Trenton, N. J., on Thanksgiving Day.

Under the auspices of a local department store, Ezra will "land" in Stacy Park and proceed to play Santa to about 10,000 children . . . all in practice for his home appearance on Christmas Eve for his two progeny.
