IN SOUTHLAND ART CIRCLES

By Fred Taylor Kraft Press-Telegram Book Editor THE BEST NOVELS AND STORIES OF EUGENE MANLOVE RHODES. Edited by Frank V. Dearing, 551 pp. Boston: Houghton Miffun Co. $5.

THE western yarns of a multitude of writers have seen the light or print since Rhodes' work ceased to appear in The SatEve-Post and other magazines, but to the old-timers who know and love the range country and its people few can compare. Rhodes' settings and characters have an inimitable quality about them; when his cowpokes pull a gun or ride a horse, the scene becomes explosively dramatic. And his easy-flowing stories abound in wit and sparkle. Now, for the first time. Rhodes' finest magazine stories are published in book form, and with their publication will come a resurgence of this educated New Mexico cowboy's popularity as a writer of authentic westerns. "Paso Por Aqui," which many critics believe to be his greatest novel, is the first story printed in this handsome volume, followed by "Good Men and True," "Bransford of Rainbow Range," and "The Trusty Knaves." There are also novelettes, short stories, a narrative, an essay and a poem. An introduction by J. Frank Dobie, who has hy J. Frank Done, who had flushed many a fine tale from the sagebrush, adds immeasurable police collection. ably to this prize collection.

'Friendly China' Full of Truths

FRIENDLY CHINA, by Barley Willis, 312 pp. Stanford, Calif.; Stanford University Press. $5.

IN A FRIENDLY China of junk-packed rivers, strange temples and teeming villages, the reader will journey among cheerful coolies, gold-robed priests and curious villagers priests and curious villagers and farmers. He will meet tax collectors, soldiers and war Jords with their dancing girls, for this was China in the aftermath of the Boxer Rebellion and the years just preceding the overthrow of the Manchu

Author Willis walked 2000 miles through the interior of China in search of an ancient ancestor, the little tribolite who lived in the sea millions of years ago. "Friendly China" sketches that journey, but it is primarily a story of people, an account of humanity, kindness and the humor of the Chinese people. A truer, more accurate and interesting portrayal of the masses of this far-away land could scarcely be imagined.—

RECORD ALBUM

Autry's Yule Discs Ready

By David C. Whitney ENE AUTRY can claim the GENE AUTH can distinction of the inches the condition of stalls this year with Columbia's waxing of "Rudolph, the Red-nosed Reindeer" and "If It Doesn't Snow on Christmas.

Although ahead of the season, both times are gaining popularity with disk jockeys, who apparently like anything out of the rut. Actually both pieces are a little on the sad side, since Autry is far from being a top-notch balladeer.

M.G.M records, meeting the competition of low-priced releases by the other major companies, has swung its entire record production to nonbreak-able material with no increase in price. One of the best of their first batch of nonbreakables is the Sarah Vaughan number, "The Man I Love" coupled with "Once in a While." Both are good mood pieces.

Other good singles: Classic-voiced Jan Pepree on "Mattinata" and "Because" (Varsity)

" and "Because" (Varsity) Dinah Shore's coupling of "The Story of Annie Laurie" with "A Thousand Violins" (Columbia)

Percy Faith and his orchestra are outstanding with "Whirl-wind" backed with "My Dream Concerto" (Victor)

You'll find a COMPLETE selection of records and record albums at

THUMBNAIL REPORTS Novel Has ON UNUSUAL BOOKS

"WITH A JUG OF WINE" is a novel cookbook written by Morrison Wood (Farrar, Straus & Co., $3.50), who is a notable food columnist and a lover of fine viands. That this book is a labor of love is obvious from the very beginning, when the author explains that the preparation of food need not be dull but can be a constant adventure into taste thrills. These recipes are different, not standard in any previous cookbook, and you'll "CRIMINAL SLANG" by Captain Vincent J. Monteleone (The "CRIMINAL SLANG" by Captain vincent 3. Monteleone (the Christopher Pub. House, $5) is a modern interpretation of the colorful language used by the more lawless classes. For example, if somebody puts a "gilligan hitch" on you, you're strangled. And if you "rattle the cup," you're informing about it and you are apt to end up in "cell ninety-nine," the coroner's office, after you've been "slipped the lump." The author has had 32 years experience as a law officer and knows all the answers.

WHEN Roy Williams turns out a cartoon he does it with a simple directness that has made him a favorite with readers of New Yorker, the Saturday Evening Post, Collier's, This Week, True, Liberty and others. Comes now an album of this Walt Disney artist's hilarious best, "How's the Back View Coming Along?" (E. P. Dutton & Co., Inc., $2.50) with 89 pages of laughdrawings and a bright foreword by Jerry Colonna. This one definitely has a place alongside the best easy chair.

"DOCTOR'S DECISION," by Herbert N. Geradell (Sheridan House, $2.75) achieves real warmth and depth. Jean L'Homme comes to practice with ideals and impatience with fel-L'Homme comes to practice with ideals and impatience with fellow practitioners, and these plunge him into trouble and an unhappy marriage. Too, it leads to a love affair with the wife of another doctor whom he finds to be suffering from a serious malady, the disclosure of which presents a problem in ethics, both moral and professional. A novel worth reading.

- Vernon Franklin AUTHOR Kelly, 360 W. Ocean Blvd., has fictionalized the biography of his grandmother in a book just published under the title of 'Roxia.'' See review.

BOOKS, WRITERS

Religion Is Theme

By Joseph Joel Keith

DODD, MEAD has published a new book, "Words That Heal Today," by one of the Southland's leading men of re-ligion and philosophy, Ernest ligion and philosophy, Ernest Holmes, who has probably helped as many people in this part of the country as any other resident; and his books have gone far and wide across the country. This new volume by Dr. Holmes, dean of the Institute of Religious Science in Los Angeles, is based on the teachings of Christ and Paul. It can be read by all types of minds, and something of value—of practical, everyday worth—should be found by everyone who obtains this book. who obtains this book.

FRANK SULLIVAN has written an introduction, Gluyas Williams has done the drawings, and Harper Bros. has published the hitherto uncollected pieces by Robert Bench-ley. It is good to find "Chips Off the Old Benchley" living after one of our most humorous men has left us.

MACMILLAN will publish on Jan. 10 "Name Into Word." on Jan. 10 "Name Into Word."
The author, Eric Partridge, has gathered groups of proper names, in common use in English. It sounds like fun. Mr.
Partridge, for instance, writes about the Calliope, named after the goddess of eloquence; but the writer says it is "a very American musical instrument with a keyboard and a series of steam whisties constituting notes; but not very good hearing." Reminds us of many reing." Reminds us of m cent political speeches.

MODY C. BOATRIGHT has written a book which should lighten our burdens in these days. Also published by Macmillan, "Folk Laughter on the American Frontier" is anon a long list of fine

WALTER B. PITKIN has written his 33rd book, "Road to a Richer Life." It is, as many Pitkin admirers will attest. Ziff-Davis has published this new inspirational volume.

JINGLE BELLS! With Christmas coming closer and closer, the children's books are being well-thumbed by prospec being wen-thumbed by prospective purchasers. One of the best, with a quaint flavor, is a story of the Filipinos, "Once in the First Times." These highly entertaining folk tales are presented by Elizabeth Hough Sechrist, and published by Macrae, Smith.

Roxia Had Two Loves

FOXIA, by Vernon Franklin Kelly. 132 pp. New York: Exposition Fress. $2.75.

THE red-headed Roxia was THE red-headed Roxia was born in England in the early 19th Century and early showed her spirit by riding and winning a horserace and getting lost in a sailboat. Too, she further showed her independence by securing work as a model in London, and later sailing alone across the Atlantic to America. The voyage was hardly unevent-The voyage was hardly unevent-ful; she had four or five pro-posals of marriage, including one from a spirited Spaniard. But Roxia married an American, only to leave him and her child and return to England and child and return to England and a divorce. But the Spaniard found her again, married her and then died mysteriously, leaving her with a small daughter.

Later Roxia returned to the arms of her first husband and her teen age son, only to have him leave her a widow. It was at the age of 52 that she married the author's grandfather, the same day her daughter married the author's father. As a tribute to this energetic woman, Mr. Kelly, a long-time resident of Long Beach, has written this volume.

Trail's Detours Woe to Emigrants 'Out of Square'

PRAIRIE SCHOONER DETOURS, by Irene D. Paden. 285 pp. New York; The Macmillan Co. $3.75.

CALIFORNIANS whose fore-bears started for the Gold-en State over the old trails but switched to one of the "quick" cutoffs in their haste to shorten the journey will find here an the journey will find here an exciting chapter in history. This is the story of Hastings Cutoff and the Lassen Cutoff, which added misery and death to many a California-bound emigrant who was imprudent enough to leave the main trail. It is written by a true historian with the assistance of old maps, a great many yellowed diaries and other musty records, and no little field work on her own. Actually it concludes an earlier work, "The Wake of the Prairie Schooner," the story of the main Overland Trail, but with the horrors experienced on the cutoffs, this latest one takes a stronger stomach to read.

Boys Will Like This Fast Tale

TREASURE BAYOU, by Frederic Nelson Litten. 223 pp. Philadelphia; West-minster Press, $2.50.

CHRIS LANE has no liking for the bayou country, but when the treasure his dead father had dreamed of is found father had dreamed of is found to be oil, there is enough excitement for any 17-year-old boy. He finds himself lined up against his old friends and neighbors when the O'Donnells, father and son, come to exploit the new field. But the young O'Donnell teaches a lesson in lovalty when he sides son in loyalty when he sides with the Cajuns in their fight to retain their rights. A good, fast tale which even adults

Long Beach Best Sellers

TCTION:

1. A RAGE TO LIVE, by O'Hara.

2. MARY, by Asch.

3. THE NAKED AND THE DEAD, by Mailer.

4. THE BIG FISHERMAN, by Doug-

5. NEVER DIES THE DREAM, by NONFICTION:

1. WHITE COLLAR ZOO, by Barnes.

2. FABULOUS BOULEVARD, by Han-

3. PEACE OF SOUL, by Sheen. 4. GUIDE TO CONFIDENT LIVING,

5. BELIEVE IN YOURSELF, by WH-The Week's Crime

COFFIN CORNER, by George Bagby, 219 pp. New York: Doubleday & Co., Inc. for the Crime Club. $2.25.

WHEN a scout for a football tycoon is found dead, his position below a hundred-foot drop from a football stadium seems to indicate the fall killed him. However, his blood is almost entirely free of sugar and for a diabetic taking insulin that seems sufficient to cause death. But he hadn't died in that fashion either; he was smothered and some very fancy dusting powder covered the seat of his pants. There are some fancy football characters in this one, but Inspector Schmitt kicks goal

Vitality, Sincerity

By Garald Lagard THE DARKNESS BELOW, by Fredric Morton, 245 pp. New York: Crown Publishers, $3.

A LL too often the very young author seems to stand between his story and his readers, being frenetically defiant, sullenly young. But the sure and polished discipline of this novel belies the author's youth while it emphasizes the things it stands for-sincerity and vitality of expression.

Anatole Braham is a doctor, but because he is a refugee from Europe, it is necessary for from Europe, it is necessary for him to study for his American medical degree. But there is a weight upon Anatole, the weight of always acting for others, never for himself. So in rebellion at last, he secures a job as a hazar to support his job as a baker to support his family until his degree is seaminy until his degree is secured. But having begun his revolt, he continues it as his life begins to turn about the machines in the baking cellar, joining with those who work during the darkness. Elvira, the cirl whose fascination for the girl whose fascination for the drunken cakebaker Jensen has roused Anatole's interest, at last brings on the explosion which has long been brewing in the ferment of the cellar and in Anatole's soul. Here is beautiful characterization, and a tremendous sense of drama.

'Bridget Malwyn' Holds Fascination

BRIDGET MALWYN by Martin Boyd. 317 pp. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co., Inc. $3.

HERE is an impressive piece of English fiction written by the author of the best-seller "Lucinda Brayford." Boyd carries Bridget across the pages in intimate fashion revealing first her qualms at being an illegitimate daughter of an Irish peer, her sound financial mar-riage which raised her to the pinnacle of London society and on through the trials with her on through the trials with her two children.

Many vivacious characters emerge in this story of Bridget's loss, greed and passion. For those who want an inside picture of a slightly decadent society life in the early days of the century, here is fascinating reading.—M. L. Z.

Delight to Read

OUT OF THE SQUARE, by Peter de Poinay, 375 pp. New York: Creative Age Press. $3.

POSTWAR Italy has seemed to fascinate a certain type of novelist, mostly the wrong type for the list has included some very bad novels. How-ever, this novel of modern-day Florence is sheer witchery and a continuing delight to read. It succeeds in bringing a fresh-ness of approach and a set of characters into being that will charm the reader.

Mario is only 14, but he is a lad for a profit in all the fashions of the Square which are those of black market dealings, petty theft and begging. Giovanna is a part of the scene. offering over and over again a battered packet of Camels and a miracle. Giovanna is charmed by an Englishman who buys her salami, and for him she promises a miracle. It is a miracle in itself that Mario suffers Giovanna's presence at his heels, and that thousands of lire come to stuff Mario's pocket, many of them from Mrs. Crocker who could only give by proxy. More than a dozen lives are touched by Giovanna's miracle, and when at last Mario was again alone and his pockets empty, he held a complete sense of satisfaction which will be reflected by the

Have a Drink?

OVERNIGHT, by Matthew Smith. New York: Sheridan House, $2,75.

"OVERNIGHT" is a pretty Shoddy affair. Even readers who like this sort of thing will find it short between drinks and too long between love.

Guild BOOK CLUB receive 2 FREE BOOKS upon joining regular 2.75 to 5.00

Guild Selections for 2.00 to members only Complete Book Departme I on the Downstairs Floor: WALKER'S Pine at Foorth

misty, with a bright-gold poplar in the foreground in this modern "Peaceful Valley" by R. V. Johnson, part of the Spectrum Club show at 225 E. Third St. The picture was painted on the club's recent rendezvous.—(Press-Telegram Photo.)

PUBLIC LIBRARY IN SPECTION SHELF

Moley Tells What Makes Politician Tick

"MASTERS OF POLITICS," by Raymond Moley, contains accounts of the lives of 27 politicians and the traits which contributed to their success. These absorbing biographies are necessarily short, but read-ers will understand a great deal about the art or profession of politics after reading them. The book arrived at the Long Beach Public Library this week.

Other new books of general interest: "The Ohio," by Richard E. Banta; "The Story of Illinois." by Theodore C. Pease; "The Chinese Conquer China." by Anna Louise Strong; "Denmark in Pictures"; "Matinee by Anna Louise Strong; "Denmark in Pictures"; "Matinee Tomorrow," by Ward Morehouse; "Songs of a Sun-lover," by Robert W. Service; "South Pacific," by Oscar Hammerstein; "Detective Story," by Sidney Kingsley; "Delight," by J. B. Priestley; "Road to a Richer Life," by Walter B. Pitkin; "The Choice Is Always Ours," by Dorothy B. Phillips, and "Psychology and Religion for Everyday Living," by Charles T. Holman. Charles T. Holman. New Fiction: "Journey Into Christmas," by Bess S. Aldrich; "The White Sail," by Sara W. Bassett; "The Little Sister," by Raymond Chandler; "The Promise," by Mildred Cram; "The Primitive," by Feike F. "The Primitive," by Feike F. Feikema; "Celia Amberley," by Victoria E. Lincoln; "The Best Novels and Stories of Eugene M. Rhodes," "Divine Mistress." by Frank G. Slaughter; "Killers of the Dream," by Lillian E. Smith, and "My Indian Sonin-law," by Hilda Wernher.

in·law," by Hilda Wernher.
Other new nonfiction: "Steuben Glass," by James S. Plaut;
"Family Casework and Counscling," by Julia J. Taft; "Railroads of Today," by S. Kip Farrington; "The Story of Language," by Mario A. Pei; "California Hackamore," by Luis B. Ortega; "Pour Yourself a. House," by Frazier F. Peters;
"From Cave Painting to Comic House, by Frazier F. Peters, "From Cave Painting to Comic Strip." Lancelot T. Hogben; "Ado se." by George W. Ramirez; "Things to Make in Arts and Crafts," by Grace A. Randail, and "Pennsylvania Songs and Legends," by George Korson.

KECA

790

by Spectrum Club By Vera Williams PREDOMINANTLY landscapes, the 34-canvas fall show of the Spectrum Club, organization of men painters,

Fall Show Opened

has just been hung at 225 E. Third St. Several paintings obviously are a result of sketches at the recent week-end rendezvous at Temescal guard station at the edge of the Cleveland National Forest, when the painters camped outdoors and painted the north slope of the Santa Ana Mountains.

Among these are "Temescal Canyon" by Darrow Durham, "California," by C. C. Smith, and a modern treatment of the same scene, called "Peaceful Valley," by R. V. Johnson.

Visitors to the show usually exclaim over "Dawn," also by Durham, a graphic, rosy picture of the sun coming up over the desert. (Durham has a car, a desert. (Durham has a car, a trailer and plenty of time and frequently goes to the desert on one-man painting expeditions). Visitors also like "Sierra Nevada," a gem by Russianborn Theodore Ediss, painted from a high place looking down on a mountain village. Rest on a mountain village. Best title, perhaps, in the show is "Granddaddy Planted This," a painting of a huge old pepper by R. V. Johnson.

Harold Bragg, club secretary who hung the pictures, considers this one of the finest shows the club has had.

the club has had.

Other canvases: "Doomed Smoke Trees," by W. C. Mc-Coy; "Summer Serene," "Peppertree Haven" and "Little Punkins," L. L. Littlefield: "Sierra Madre Foothills," "Peaceful Peppertree" and "Tall Peak," D. W. Duncan; "Desert Verbena" and "Spectrum Club Rendezvous," Arthur Stephens; "The Old Way" and "The Mountain Pool," C. R. Walline; "The Old Way" and "The Mountain Pool." C. R. Walline; "Hoover Roses," "Moonlight Madonna" and "At Home," George Jensh; "Palos Verde" and "October Cottonwoods," Natt Piper; "Laguna Beach," Theodore Ediss; "Irrigation Canal," "Three Shapes" and "Cathedral Rock," Edgar H. Lore; "The Old Barn," Ivan Mc-Michael; "Harbor Corner," William J. Wilson; "California Landscape," "The Bait Box" and "Santa Ana Canyon Ranch," Karl Albert; "Autumn," C. C.

Smith; "Little Perina," Dick Johnson.

PICTURE for picture and I statue by statue, as many pieces of conservative art should be exhibited and bought by the county as modern art believe men artists of the Spechelieve men artists of the Spec-trum Club.

A letter of protest, sent by the club, now is being consid-ered by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. Says the letter "We protest the spending of public funds for the purpose of exhibiting and purchasing only the modern and bizarre paintings in our county mu-seum and county fair and the excluding of conservative art.

"For your information, the Spectrum Club was founded in 1929 and has continued to func-1929 and has continued to func-tion and contribute to the cul-tural life of our community since that date. It has 60 mem-bers and consists of profes-sional artists, architects, doc-tors, engineers and almost every type of business and pro-fessional man common to durfessional man common to our economic life. They all actively are interested in art either as a profession or as a hobby.
"We feel that the jurymen appointed or hired by the county to select pictures to be exhibited have shown a definite leaning to modern art to the exclusion of conservative art. We also believe that the great-er percentage of people are not sympathetic to these extreme exhibits.

"We strongly urge that in the future exhibits of paintings and sculpture include at least an equal number of works from the conservative school of art." The communication is signed y Harold Bragg, Spectrum Club secretary.

KFAC

1330

RADIO, TELEVISION AND F. M. PROGRAMS

KHJ

980

KFI KMPC KLAC

DIAL LITES-TONIGHT 6:30 P.M.-KFI-Charles (Bud) Dant and His Orchestra accompany singer-comedian Dennis Day on his weekly broadcast of "A Day in the Life of Dennis Day." In addition to his vocal offerings Dennis really turns on the comics to add to your entertainment tonight. 7:00 P.M.-KECA-Songstress Dinah Shore and her actor-husband George Montgomery face the barrage of unrehearsed questions from Hollywood correspondents on "Hollywood Byline."

7:30 P.M.-KFI-"Grand Ole Opry" celebrates its 24th anniversary tonight with a broadcast from a United States Air Force base in Europe.

8:00 P. M.-KNX-Vaughn Monroe turns the musical spotlight on the West Point and Annapolis service schools as he features Army and Navy songs in honor of the day's great grid classic between these two schools.

8:30 P. M.—KHJ—A musical trip throughout "Lombardo Land, U. S. A." is your treat tonight when Guy Lombardo offers his popular orchestra playing "the sweetest music" this side of heaven.'

KFI-Symphony. KLAC-News, Sports. KHJ-Morton Gould Orchestra. KMPC-News. KECA-Our Town. KFWB-S. Hamblen.

5 P. M.

KNX-The Chicagoan KFAC—Serenade.

KFI—Sun. Preview.

Train. KGER—1st Congregational Church. KFOX—News. KVOE—Meet Your KECA—Hollywood By-Line.

KLAC—Sam Balter. KFI—E. Peterson. KECA—News. KMPC—Diocese. KNX—Bob Garred. KFOX-Polish Sere-

Hail. Doyle. KECA—Someone You KMPC—Bill Welsh. Know.
KHJ-KVOE—Quick
as a Flash
KNX—Philip

Shoemaker
KFAC—Twiligh! Hr.
KGER—Back to Bible
KFOX—News, Music.
KFOX—Proudly We Hail.
KGER—G. Dotson. KLAC-Al Jarvis.

Music. 6:30 P. M.

6:45 P. M. KECA-Bert An- ' drews. KVOE—Hit Parade.

Playhouse.

KFWB-Gospel and Song.
KNX—Sing It Again.
KFAC—Church.
KGER—Bel!
Christian Church.

bardoland. KNX—Gene Autry. KFWB—On the Beat. KGER-Music. KLAC—Harness Races. KFOX—Congressman

KLAC—Show Tunes. KMPC—Parade of Hits. KFI—Hit Parade. KHJ-KVOE—News. KECA—Cancer Fight. KFWB—Navy Band.

KFOX-Music.

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. No responsibility assumed for last-minute changes which sometimes are made.

KFOX

KNX

1070

KNBH . Channel 4 KTLA . Channel 5 KECA . Channel 7 KLAC . Channel 13

KTSL . Channel 2 KFI .. Channel 9 KTTV . Channel 11

8:30

KTLA—West Varie-

KECA-Boris Kar-

7:00

KLAC—Trott'g Race. KNBH—Who Said That. KECA—Photocrime

9:30

9:45

KTLA—lce Hockey

10:30

KLAC—Harness

daily schedule.

daily schedule.

3.30—Concert.

7:00—Concert. 9:00—Music.

Megs.

KFAC-FM-104.3

24 Hours a Day.

8:00—Concert.

Symphony. 10:00—Dr. Jazz.

9:00-News,

man.

KFMV-94.7 Megs.

6:15—Time for Art. 6:30—Music.

KMPC—Leisure Time

KHJ-KVOE-Music.

KFWB-Gene Nor-

KECA-Orchestra.

KNX—News. KFAC—Dance Time. KFOX—Music.

11:15 P. M.

KFI-Morton Dow-

11:30 P. M.

KECA—Orchestra. KVOE—Hawaii Calls.

ney. KNX—Merry Go

KFI—Grchestra. KHJ—Music.

Round.

7:00-Chi Theater.

8:00-9:00-Same as

KMGM-98.7 Mcgs.

:00-Curtain Time.

KNBH—News KECA—Movietime

loff.

KGER

1390

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26

7:10

KTLA—Man's Best

7#80

KNBH—Film, Desert Drums.

KLAC-Film "Thurs-days Child"

KTLA—Western Film

8:00

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26

Workshop.

7:00—Concert.

9:00-Melody.

8:00-Guest Star.

8:30—Melody House.

9:30-Story of Music

KNOB-103.1 Megs.

6:00—Music. 7:00—Parade of B'ds.

10:00—Orchestra. KHJ—101.1 Megs. 1:30 to 7—Same as

KECA-Your Wit-

Friend.

KECA-Young America KECA-P.T.A. Milk Bowl High School 7:00 KTLA—Football
Greats
KECA—Sagebrush
Theater.

KTSL—Silent KTTV—Silent 5:30 —Cowbay Thrills.

12:45

KFWB

6:00 KECA-Test. 6:30

Football.

KTLA-Sandy Dreams. KLAC--Film

6:45

"Missing People" KLAC—Film. FREQUENCY MODULATION

KECA-95.5 Megs.— 9:00—Top Ten. 5:30 to midnight KUSC-91.5 Megs.— (same as daily 5:00-Junior schedule). KNX — 93.1 Megs. — 6:00—Footlite Review through 9 p. m. KMPC-100.3 Megs. 3 to midnight. 9:00—Melody. 7:15—Coast Guard

KLAC—News, Melody Parade, KFI—Truth or Conse quences, Frost Warnings. 6:00—Concert. 7:30—Proudly Hail. 8:00—Concert. KMPC-Eddie Oxford KECA-Lone Ranger. KCER-French Mu-

KMPC-Rhythms.

Show. KFOX-News. 9:30 P. M.

KFI—Star Theater. KECA—Records. KHJ, KVOE—Treasury Show. KFOX—Rhumba Time. KFWB—Layman's

Hour. KNX—Johnny Dollar. KGER—John Brown Schools.

10 P. M.

man (to 12:00). KNX-News. KFAC-Musical Cross Roads. KGER—Choir.

10:15 P. M.

10:30 P. M. KFI-Voices and Events. KECA—Orchestra. KHJ—Carmen

Cavallaro.
KNX.—Cloak Room.
KVOE.—Frost Warn ing and Orchestra. KGER-Carroll's Corral (to 12). 10:45 P. M.

11 P. M. KLAC-Don Otis.

11:45 P. M. KHJ-News. 'KMPC-News. KNX-U. N. Memo. 12 MIDNITE

KLAC—Don Otis, KFI—Music Menu, KHJ—Waxody, KFWB—Music.

Serenade.

5:15 P. M.

KLAC—Music Room
KMPC—Star Sing
KECA—Spec. Event.
KNX—Tom Hanlon.

5:30 P. M.

KLAC—Musical. KMPC—Dr. W. Muir. KECA—Harmonaires. KHJ—Palace Personalities KNX—Bill Costello. KFAC—Playtown

Match. 5:45 P. M.

nade. 4 P. M. KLAC-KMPC—News KFI—Proudly We

Marlowe. KFWB—Steve

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26

KMPC-Bob Kelley. KFWB-Music. KFOX—Hawailan

KVOE-Local News. KFWB-Community

7 P. M. KLAC—News, Music. KFI—Judy Canova. KMPC—Dinner Date. KHJ-WOE—Comedy KHJ-WOE—Comedy

KFOX—Pet Parade. 7:15 P. M.

Country.

7:30 P. M. KFI-Grand Ole Opry KMPC—Your Mercy.

Hour.

Treasury.

Christian.

8:15 P., M.

8:30 P. M.

KLAC-Jan Garber.

KFI—Dick Haymes. KMPC—Church.

KMPC—Church. KFOX—Music.

KECA—Superman. KHJ-KVOE—Lom-

9 P. M.

8 P. M.

7:45 P. M. KLAC-Football-

Same as daily sched 6:15—Beyond Song. ule - from 3 p. m. 6:45-Teen-age Loyola vs. Arizona.
KMPC—To Vets.
KFOX—Music.
KFWB—Errand of

> Salute. KFI-105.9 Megs.-Same as daily Sched. KKLA-97.1 Megs.-5:00-In the Groove.

Hour.
KFOX—Barn Dance.
KNX—Vghn. Monroe.
KFAC—Eve. Concert.
KGER—Bible sic. KNX—Gang Busters. KFAC—Eve. Concert.

9:15 P. M. KHJ KVOE—Dink Templeton. KFWB—U. N. KECA—Treasury

KLAC-Crosby Time.

KLAC-Don Otis. KMPC-All Time Hits. KFI, KECA—News. KHJ-KVOE—Monica Whalen. KFWB—Gene NorKFOX-Party Time.

KFI-Ray Darby. KMPC—Ice Hockey. KHJ-KVOE—Orch. KECA—Sports. KFOX-Orchestra. KNX-L. A. Story.

KLAC—Otis, News. KFI—Melody Time. KFOX—Music.

KFAC-Midnite KFI-Solitaire Time.

CARL'S RADIO BELMONT SHORE 5110 E. 2nd St. Ph. 8-0172 WEST SIDE 2065 Santa Fe Ph. 7-1809