DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters.

6:00-KFI-The suspenseful bomber command story "Command Decision" with its original cast will make a return engagement to the "Screen Guild Theater." Clark Gable, Van Johnson, John Hodiak, Walter Pidgeon and Edward Arnold are among the stars to appear.

7:30—KFI—For the first time "Dragnet," the realistic crime-smashing show, honors a living police officer . . . John M. Gleason of Greenwich, Conn., who is also president of the International Association of Police Chiefs. The case tonight is a man who encourages juveniles to steal and then acts as a fence for the stolen goods.

7:30—KNX—Marjorie Reynolds, lovely screen actress, stars in an original drama titled "Something Special," the story of a girl who reaches the wrong solution in a romantic quandary. This is the premiere of "Skippy Hollywood Theater" on CBS.

9:00-KECA-The guilt or innocence of a Japanese war lord will be discussed on "Author Meets the Critic" when Frank Reel's book, "The Case of General Yamashita," is exposed to criticism. The panel will include the author, who was the defense counsel in the case, and Louis Nizer, who represented the U.S. at the Nuremberg trials.

9:30-KHJ-The simulated death of the ballerina is found to be only too real by "Peter Salem," as he investigates "The Affair of the Twisted Toe."
