PERSONALITIES

A SWINDLE OF THE GOVERNMENT, BY FOREKNOWLEDGE OF BUILDING PROjects and subsequent purchase and resale at a higher price of the properties, is ended by federal agents in "The Sellout" on CBS' "F.B.I. in Peace and War" Thursday 2:00-2:30 p.m. Martin Blaine and Robert Sloane appear as agents She ppard and Bailey. The series is written by Jacques Finke and Louis Pelletier. Betty Mandeville directs and produces.

KTSA-7 P.M. DOROTHY McGUIRE, WHO WON ACCLAIM FOR HER SCREEN PERformances in "Gentleman's Agreement" and "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," stars in an adaptation of Margaret Arnim's delightful turn-of-the-century comedy, "Christopher and Columbus," on CBS' "Hallmark Playhouse" Thursday. Miss McGuire plays both of the German-born Twinkler twins who, dissatisfied with life in England, sail for America. During their hilarious early adventures here they find the U.S. and its customs often difficult to understand. The comedy was chosen for "Hallmark Playhouse" presentation by novelist

James Hilton, the program's host-narrator. Bill Gay produces and directs and Lyn Murray conducts the incidental music. KTSA-9 P.M. HELEN TRAUBEL, METROPOLITAN OPERA STAR WHO HAS BEEN Hilton coaching Margaret Truman, will take on a stiffer assignment when she introduces Ed "Archie" Gardner's latest composition on the NBC "Duffy's Tavern" Thursday, 8:30 p.m., The Wagnerian soprano will give the full treatment to her interpretation of "The Rajah of Blue-Koo Is Coo-Koo," Archie's latest opus. WOAI-8:30 P.M.

SCREEN FAVORITE JANE WYATT PORTRAYS A TEMPERAMENTAL STAGE ACtress who insults a small town drama critic and gets completely "deglamorized" in print for her troubles, when she sters in "The London Legend," original radio drama, on CBS' "Skippy Hollywood Theater" Thursday, 9:30-10:00 p.m. When the actress cools off, she decides to use gentler tactics in dealing with the critic, only to learn that the pen is mightier than the sword, even in love. Les Mitchel is producer, director and host of the series. Music is by Del Castillo. Van Des Autel is announcer. KTSA-9:30 P.M. A MOVIE PLOT SHE HAD SEEN PROMPTS JUDY TO SET UP AN "honesty pledge" with her boyfriend, Oogie, only to have the whole thing back-fire in her face as Oogie gets an assist from Judy's father, in "Judy Loses Truthful Oogie Temporarily," the "A Date With Judy" program slated for to-night, KABC-7:30 P.M.

A DRAWING OF A COFFIN ON THE VICTIM'S DOOR AND A MYSTERIOUS LETTER rovide clues for CBS' "Mr. Keen, Tracer of Lost Persons" when he delves into "The Case of he Sign of Death" Thursday, 7:30-8:00 p.m. Bennett Kilpack plays the title role, and James Kelly is heard as his partner, Mike Clancy. Frank and Anne Hummert are the producers. KTSA-MICKEY ROONEY TRIES TO WIN THE GIRL HE LOVES BY COMMITTING MURDER for her in the Thursday night Auto-Lite "Suspense" drama, to be heard at 8 p.m. over CBS station KTSA. Title of the thriller: "For Love or Murder," As a young, sensitive musician completely under the domination of a cruel and cunning woman, Rooney will have an opportunity for a distinctive and gripping characterization. Rooney plays a night club planist, in love with the wife of a dull, fat and wealthy older man. The girls paints a glowing picture of what their life could be if only her husband were out of the way, and it is she who works out the minutest details of the murder plot and painstakingly coaches Rooney. The swiftly-paced drama—an original for "Suspense" by John Shaw - presents this murder in its opening scene, then offers an equally horrifying closeup of the psychological effects of the crime upon the killer. A stream-of-consciousness type of narration by the star provides a spine-tingling buildup for the unexpected conclusion. William Spier produces, Norman Macdonnell directs, and Lud Gluskin conducts an original musical score composed by

Lucien Moraweck KTSA—8 P.M.
