Bill Douglas's SPOTLIGHT 'The Messiah'

TIP OF THE MORNING: Next sports figure to enter radio will be Jackie Robinson. He'll do a weekly show on ABC starting Jan. 22.

A capacity audience heard "The Messiah" at Music hall Sunday night, and almost as many persons were turned away, since all seats were filled by 7:40 p. m.

Among the turnaways was your correspondent, who went from Music hall to The State Journal to write this, then headed home to listen to as much as remained via WMA-FM.

The Handel oratorio was performed by the University chorus under Prof. Paul G. Jones, with Robert Erbach as organ accompanist. Scheduled as soloists were Prof. Christine Gunlaugson, Ruth Klenhoff, Raleigh Williams, and Martell Distrud.

Another free performance "The Messiah" will be given at 3:30 p. m. Sunday in the Masonic auditorium. This time, it will be Madison's annual civic presentation, with Walter Heermann conducting.

Christmas music will ring out over the university campus next week as some 18,000 students get ready to depart for their homes for their Christmas holidays.

Two groups of brass players will alternate to play Christmas carols from the Music hall tower on Dec. 15 and 18. The musicians, under the direction of Robert M. Fleury, will play from 11:45 a. m. to noon.

From 10:50 to 11 a. m. the same days the music school will sponsor its annual corridor carol sing on the first floor of Music hall. Prof. Jones will be in charge of the sing, which will be broadcast Friday on station WMA.

The university carillon will ring out Christmas carols at 1 and 5:30 p. m. daily until Saturday.

For the benefit of Madison residents who cannot hear the bells at the regular playing periods, Carolonneur Peter K. Nelson will give a special recital of Christmas music at 7:45 p. m. Sunday.

ANSWER TO QUERY: "Dr. I. Q." now is on WISC and WLS at 7 p.m. Wednesdays.

Turntables are in for another livestock tramping with a ditty called "Pony Express" which may clip-clop right behind "Mule Train." So far, it's available on Columbia with Stuart Hamblen.

Peppi, Guy Lombardo's head waiter at the bandleader's restaurant in Freeport, L.I., also takes care of the eatery's juke box, which is loaded with soothing dinner music. One day, while Guy was
