The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters.

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

6:00-KNX-"Leave It to Joan" . . . when she hires an ex-convict to play Santa Claus at Willock's Department Store she starts a small riot.

6:30—KECA—Commemorating the anniversary of the adoption of the "Bill of Rights," ABC presents a program dedicated to the timely analysis of this historic document.

7:00-KFI-Joan Fontaine will recreate her original role "The Affairs of Susan" when "Screen Directors' Playhouse" presents their adaptation of that film tonight. It is the comic story of a prissy young man who has the temerity to delve into his fiancee's past.

7:00-KHJ-Former Air Force Maj. George Racey Jordan, whose revelations have prompted two Congressional investigations, will be the guest to "Meet the Press" tonight.

8:30-KNX-"The Goldbergs" Cousin Muttel Sunshine, now prosperous as the result of his recent invention, is so grateful that he writes checks for all the relatives . . . his plea to recall them falls on deaf ears and he is once again bankrupt.

TOMORROW

11:00-KECA-"Tristan und Isolde," Richard Wagner's immortal opera, will be the performance presented by the Metropolitan Opera today. . . . The title roles will be sung by the leading Wagnerian artists, Helen Traubel, soprano, and Lauritz Melchoir, tenor.

11:45-KFI-With Bill Stern at the mike, NBC will broadcast the Shamrock Charity Bowl game from Houston, Texas. This classic will pit the champs of the All-American Pro Conference, Cleveland Browns, against a team composed of all-stars from collegiate teams.

1:30-KHJ-This is one of the first of the Christmas offerings. . . . A college choir presents the "Song of the Nativity."

4:30-KFI-Arturo Toscanini will conduct the NBC Symphony in an all-Wagner program for his final concert of this season. This is truly a feast for Wagner fans with music from "Parsifal," "Gotterdammerung" and "The Ring."

TELE-TIPS

8:00—KECA—That amazingly funny comic team of Dick Wesson and Jim Backus will delight the audience (present and at home) with their amusing antics on "Hollywood House."

8:00—KTSL—"Touchdown" concludes its football series tonight with a review of the past season's greatest gridiron spectacles. As a plus there will be a three-minute action shot from the S. M. U.-Notre Dame game.

8:30-KTTV-One and a half hours of fine opera may be viewed when Rossini's scintillating "Barber of Seville" is presented at this time tonight.

9:00-KNBH-This is a new time for the "Bonnie Maid Versatile Varieties," starring Harold Barry.
