Christmas Spirit A La Disc

Among the recent recordings reaching this department are some outstanding ones in almost every field. Hit or miss, take 'em as they come, here's

Juanita Hall (Victor): "South Pacific's" Bloody Mary sings "Scarlet Ribbons" with a great tenderness, then turns to a lusty blues number - "Blow Them Blues

Away." Billy Butterfield sets the pace with his trumpet. Claude Thornhill orchestra (Victor): Meredith Willson's catchy novelty, "The Iowa Indian Song," gets a rhythmic treatment, with vocal by Russ McIntyre and the Snowflakes. On the flipover, Joe Derise and the Snowflakes contribute zany lyrics to "Johnson

Rag." The Three Suns (Victor):

"Your Christmas Favorites," a swell collection of yuletide tunes, from "Adeste Fideles" to "Winter Wonderland." The others are "Santa Claus Is Comin' to Town," "White Christmas," "Silent Night," and "Jingle Bells."

Roy Rogers nd Spade Cooley's orchestra (Victor): "Skip to My Lou," an album of six square dances, with Rogers calling. Liza Kirk (Victor): the star of "Kiss Me Kate" revives "Charley, My Boy" with a sparkle, then does to tongue-in-cheek version of "Shame on You," which Spade Cooley featured a few years ago. Richard Keys Biggs (Columbia): "An Organ Concert of Carols," an album containing 11 carols on four discs—every one of the most

Mary Kaye Trio (Columbia): Down Christmas Tree Lane" and "My Two Front Teeth;"

they sparkie, but nobody has done "Front Teeth" to equal Spike Jones.

Doris Day (Columbia): "Here Comes Santa Claus" and "Ol' Saint Nicholas," bright and Dinah Shore (Columbia): "The Star of Bethlehem" and "Merry Christmas Polka," the holi-day in two moods.

Elleen Farrell, Set Svanholm, and the Rockester Philharmonic under Erich Leinsdorf (Vietor): Act 3. Scene 3 of "Siegfried." This is a resonant recording, superlative in its reproduction. But, as Delos Smith of the United Press notes, "It is not Wagner as Wagner is when the singers are on a stage and the orchestra is in its pit. This is not operatic Wagner, but concert With this qualification, the listening is a satisfactory experience in the living

Busch Chamber Players (Columbia): "12 Concerti Gressi, Opus 6," Handel. This is a reissue on LP records of the superb set made by Adolph Busch Ernest Drucker, Hermann Busch, and Mieczysław Horszewski. For the earnest music lover, there could be few better Christ-

(Other recent and good reissues on LP include Beethoven's ninth symphony by the New York Philharmonic-Symphony under Bruno Walter, reviewed here a few weeks ago; Brahms' 'German Requiem," another outstanding performance, this one by the Vienna Philharmonic orchestra, a Vienna choir, and soloists under Herbert Von Karajan; Cyril Smith's recording of the Rachmaninoff "Piano Concerto No. 2" with the Liverpool Philharmonic under Sir Malcolm Sargent, and Gould's "Interplay for Plano and Orchestra," with Morton Gould conducting the Robin Hood Dell orchestra. The Gould set also includes another reissue, "Music of Morton Gould," among which are "Red Calvary March," "New China March," "Cowboy Rhap-
