FREEPORT and the historic Velasco are built on an artificial salt "lake." Because of floods which caused great damage, the Brazos River was diverted north of Freeport and a new mouth was opened into the gulf. The area is protected by a granite seawall capped with concrete. This novel engineering feat has attracted many visitors.

Film Standouts Owe First Start To C.B.S. Series

With the emergence of Mercedes McCambridge as a screen personality in the new movie "All the King's Men," chalk up another contribution by CBS' "Inner Sanctum" to the ranks of Hollywood emulators. The full list of performers who have won movie success through their work on the KTSA 7 p.m. Monday thrill series is impressive. Here it is: Richard Widmark, Sam Wanamaker, Agnes Moorehead, Berry Kroeger, Everett Sloane, Myron McCormick, Paul Stewart, Arnold Moss, Ted de Corsia, Martin Gabel, Stefan Schnabel, Juano Hernandez, Anne Seymour, Ray Collins, Ed Begley, Frank Lovejoy and Luis Van Rooten.

The relationship between "Inner Sanctum" and movie roles isn't just a coincidence. According to producer-director Hi Brown, movie talent scouts are regular visitors at "Inner Sanctum" rehearsals and broadcasts. Long famous in radio circles for its demands upon actors, "Inner Sanctum" is regarded by members of the profession as the show on which they can "let themselves go," giving free rein to emotions and characterization.

In addition to the activities of Hollywood eagles, Brown points out two other confirmations of this. For one thing, actors frequently have their "Inner Sanctum" performances recorded off the air so they can hear and study them later. For another, no less an authority than Cornelia Otis Skinner referred to the "Inner Sanctum" style of acting in a recent magazine article.

Noel Carols Heard on CBS During Week

Pre-Christmas programs of carols by five outstanding choirs from various parts of the country will be heard each weekday afternoon over CBS from Monday through Friday over KTSA from 3:25 to 4 p.m.

Opening the series is the famed Hampton Institute A Capella Choir of 125 voices, heard on Monday. Dr. Henry N. Switten conducts the choir in carols of many centuries and many nations, from a medieval Catalan Nativity song of the 15th century, "Nix de Veilla," to two modern Negro spirituals, "Go Tell It to de Mountain" and "Peter, Go Ring dem Bells." France is represented by Gevaert's "Le Sommeil de l'Enfant Jesus" and Bohemia by three old Christmas carols arranged by Carl Riedel.

Britain Installs New TV Station

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. BIRMINGHAM, Eng., Dec. 15. Britain extended its television system tonight to cover nearly a third of the people in the crowded British Isles. The B.B.C. inaugurated at nearby Sutton Coldfield its second transmitter, the first of four projected relays to give television to 70 per cent of the people of England, Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland within the next three years.

NO CRYSTAL BALL

As Arthur Godfrey tells it, a lawyer friend of his pleaded a case for a fortune teller. He summed up the case by saying that she should be released because she didn't tell fortunes well enough to qualify—or she wouldn't be in court. P.S.—She was released.

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

A MAN IS THREATENED BY HIS WIFE, WHO IS SUPPOSED to have died six months earlier, in "Beyond the Grave," the Inner Sanctum" chiller starring Martin Gabel, Monday. Host Paul McGrath opens the creaking door on a small island off the Florida coast. Arthur and his friend Vincent are in a little house, when the telephone rings, and the voice of Arthur's dead wife warns him that he has just six hours to live. Naturally a little nervous, Arthur tries to get off the island, and finds the bridge washed out. Then he picks up the phone to call the police, but the wires have been cut. But the ghostly voice of Valerie keeps checking off the hours. Arthur and Valerie hadn't got along too well, and it seems that she plans to nag him right into the grave. "Beyond the Grave" was written by Adamson and Bob Sloane. Hi Brown produces and directs for Bromo Seltzer, and Norman Brokenshire announces. KTSA—7 P.M.

AFTER BEULAH AND THE HENDERSONS HAVE pledged themselves to refrain from post-Christmas exchanges of gifts, no matter how unsatisfactory they might be, a pre-Christmas mix-up of the presents complicates matters, as C.B.S. "Beulah" launches a new week of fun, Monday, Hattie McDaniel is the star. KTSA—6 P.M.

VARYING MUSICAL PERIODS WILL BE REPRESENTED on the Monday evening radio concert of the Houston Symphony Orchestra. Two movements of Beethoven's No. 7, composed in 1813, will join Samuel Barber's "Adagio for Strings," written in 1936 and revised in 1938, on the program. The Houston Symphony is under the direction of Efrem Kurtz, and Monday evening's broadcast, at 9 p.m., will be heard statewide over Station KPFC in Houston, WOAI in San Antonio, WFAA-WBAP in Fort Worth and Dallas, KRIS in Corpus Christi, and KGNC, Amarillo. WOAI—9 P.M.

A MARRIED COUPLE FIGHTING TO HOLD THEIR child is the basis of the dramatic story on the "Aunt Jenny" show today. This human tale of mother love is one Aunt Jenny followers won't want to miss. That's the Aunt Jenny show. KTSA—11:15 A.M.

THE TELEPHONE HOUR'S PRE-CHRISTMAS PROGRAM will feature Charles Thomas, who will highlight songs by American composers who works he often introduced and featured on his concert and radio programs. The Bell Telephone orchestra and chorus, conducted by Donald Voorhees, will join Thomas in the opening number, Handel's great composition, "Joy to the World." Thomas and the orchestra and chorus also will be featured in the program finale, the familiar song, "The Lord's Prayer" by the American composer, Albert Hay Malotte. Earlier in the program, Thomas and the chorus will sing a medley of children's songs, appropriate to the Christmas season. Two additional numbers by American composers also will be included in Thomas' program. They are Robert MacGimsey's Christmas song, "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," and Mana-Zucca's children's song, "My Sore Thumb." Voorhees and the Bell Telephone orchestra will complete the concert with "Noel" from "Symphonic Sketches" by the American composer George Wakefield Chadwick. WOAI—8 P.M.

UNCLE DAN BEGINS THE FIRST IN A SERIES OF children's Christmas stories with his own original version of "Where Santa Claus got his reindeer," Monday at 5 p.m. Old-time children's stories are brought up-to-date by Uncle Dan everyday, Monday through Friday at 5 p.m. on KTSA. KTSA—5 P.M.

Munsel

THE PERENNIAL FAVORITE, "ROSE Marie" will be the operetta for the "Railroad Hour" Monday. Patrice Munsel, soprano of opera and concert, will co-star with Gordon MacRae in the Rudolph Friml musical romance. "Rose Marie" is set in the colorful background of the Canadian Rockies. It is the story of the love of a Canadian girl and an American mining engineer. Miss Munsel and MacRae will play these roles. They were heard in these parts of the "Railroad Hour" last season, and this is a return engagement by popular request. Songs from the musical include "Rose Marie," "My Jeem," "Totem Tom Tom," "Here Come the Mounties" and "Indian Love Call." Carmen Dragon directs the orchestra. The operetta was adapted for radio by Jean Holloway. WOAI—7 P.M.

FOREHANDED TIKES WRITE SANTA'S BOSS

Hundreds of letters per day are being received by Ralph Edwards from children who feel he has a great deal of influence with Santa Claus.

Undoubtedly they recall Santa's visit to "Truth or Consequences" last Dec. 25 and the "consequence" Edwards gave him: to go back across the country with his sleigh and reindeer and leave gifts at homes that he missed the night before on his Christmas Eve ride.

Santa broadcast from his imaginary sleigh-in-the-air as he whisked across the country and stopped at children's homes in Hollywood, San Francisco, Hammond, Ind., and New York City.

POPULAR IN BARS. At 2,500 of New York City's 3,000 bars—about 85 per cent—television sets have been installed.

Miserable Dandruff Victim Finds Relief

HALLETSVILLE, Texas.—Mrs. Johnnie Honish, Rt. 2, Hallettsville, Texas, says: "I was a miserable victim of dandruff and itchy scalp, until I gave Baker's Hair Tonic a trial. My scalp itched something awful, and I could hardly stand it. I am very grateful for what Baker's Hair Tonic has done for me, and hope everyone who is seeking relief from the tormenting twins will hear about this great product." For dandruff and itchy scalp use Baker's Hair Tonic, and for clean scalp and lustrous hair use Baker's "Latherist" Shampoo. Get them both at your drug store, barber shop or beauty shop. You'll be delighted with results, as the makers of Baker's will refund every penny of your money.—Adv.

'D.A.' Aide Gets Father's Gold Badge

As right-hand man to radio's "Mr. District Attorney," "Harrington"—in real life, Len Doyle—has received hundreds of honorary titles, badges, citations, et al.

During recent rehearsals at NBC, he was presented with still another gold, shield-shaped badge.

It was given him by Paul Gould, New York attorney, and is the same badge worn by Gould's father, Charles W. Gould, a 79-year-old "Mr. D.A." fan, when he was active as a detective and confidential aide to District Attorney Jerome, famous prosecutor of the Harry Thaw murder case.

The elder Gould was an arch foe of Manhattan thugs and gamblers in the early 1900s.

HOW TRUTHFUL

He was only kidding, of course, but when Rosemary DeCamp asked announcer Art Gilmore, at a CBS "Dr. Christian" rehearsal, "What would Christmas be, without just seeds of presents?" Gilmore replied "Cheaper."
