TIP O' THE MORNING: Eddie Cantor is planning a tour of 22 colleges in March and April, He'll do a lecture at each on "Show Business-40 Years"-with singing and dancing demonstrations. Whether Wisconsin is on the list isn't known yet.

Here's a letter from Douglas Meeker, who played a leading role in Wisconsin Players' production of "Awake and Sing" at the Wisconsin Union theater, in answer to very little of Chekhov's work at this time, but quite a lot about Lawson's 'Success Story'. It was Lawson's play that brought Odets Lethercott. an awareness of a new kind of theater dialog. It was a compound This Outfit's Policy of lofty moral feeling, anger and the feverish argot of the big city. Is Tough on Nudists It bespoke a warm heart, and out-

It bespoke a warm heart, and outraged spirit, and a rough tongue."

As to the play's moral or lesson, it is suggested that "Ise Regusted" take off his "rose-colored glasses" and look at life around him teday.

As to the play's moral or lesson, it is suggested that "Ise Regusted" ployes heading for jobs in the Near East include the following information:

"Whe'll really have something to be He'll really have something to be regusted about! Today as in 1933 all seasons of the year." —life in America is still printed on dollar bills. If this didn't come through to the paying guests, then I, for one, failed a great play of the American theater.

CLEAR PROFIT: Comedian Menasha Skulnick recently de-acribed a novel way to make fast buck. Seems Menasha, whose wit has earned him the title of "Second Ave. Will Rogers", once had 75 cents, needed exactly a dollar. but could see no way to acquire the other quarter. So, he turned in the 75 cents at a pawn shop and received in return 50 cents in coin—and a pawn tacket for 75 cents.

He then sold the 75-vent pawn ticket to the butcher for 50 cents and there he was with his dol-lar. How the butcher made out, Menasha didn't say.

TOP MOVIES: The motion pictures which grossed the most money at boxoffices in the nation's major cities during November were "Chicago Deadline", "Jolson sin Union theater, in answer to another letter in this column:

Since you devoted so much space in your column to a letter stating many gross untruths. I beg you to please print some truth in regards to Clifford Odets and his play. "Awake and Sing."

First of all, "Ise Regusted" is mixed up chronologically as to where Mr. Odets fits into the American theater and as to "who is imitating whom." Quoting from "The Fervent Years, the story of the Group Theater and the Thirties." (page 149), by Harold Clurman, a director of the Group Theater that nurtured Odets:

"Awake and Sing" was written out of the distress of the 1932 depression. It was completed in 1933 and belatedly produced in 1935...

A bit of loose talk about Chekhov's influence on Odets cropped up in some reviews. Odets knew very little of Chekhov's work at this time, but ouite a lot about this time, but ouite a lot about this time, but ouite a lot about the states of the corresponding time to the correspondence of the Group of the Chekhov's work at this time, but ouite a lot about this time, but ouite a lot about the time to the corresponding time to the cast.
