KGER 1370

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters.

DIAL LITES-TONIGHT

You just can't miss no matter where you twist your dials tonight but here are a few of our suggestions for your Christmas listening:

6:30-KNX-The moving rural paraphase of the birth of the Savior will again be presented by "Lum and Abner." This is the miraculous story of an incident in an Arkansas town which parallels the famous one celebrated 2000 years ago.

7:00-KFI-Five hundred underprivileged guests will witness the "Screen Directors Playhouse" presentation of "The Miracle of 34th Street," when Edmund Gwenn will play Santa Claus to the real children by distributing presents to his young audience.

7:30-KNX-Garry Moore, Evelyn Knight and Edgar Bergen will honor the "Rose Bowl Queen" when she and her court appear on this program tonight.

9:30-KHJ-"Joy to the World" will be broadcast from the Presbyterian Church in Hollywood, with Dennis Morgan singing carols and H. B. Warner telling the story of Christmas.

10:30—KFI—From Rockefeller Center in New York City comes the celebration of their Christmas tree lighting.

TELE-TIPS

7:30-KTSL-It's Christmas here-many interpretations of this wonderful season will be shown tonight on 'Christmas Definitions.'

7:30-KECA-Don Ameche and Monica Lewis will be seen as guest stars on "Celebrity Time."

8:00-KECA-Alan Mowbray, who arrived last week as an efficiency expert, takes over as hotel manager on "Dick Wesson in Hollywood House."

TOMORROW

11:00—KECA—Donizetti's comic opera "L'Eiser d'Amore" will be presented by the Metropolitan as their day before Christmas special. The principal roles will be sung by Bidu Sayao and Ferruccio Tagliavini.

2:00—KECA—KFI—KHJ—These stations will broadcast the ceremony attendant the lighting of the nation's Christmas tree on the White House lawn by President Harry S. Truman.

4:30-KFI-Guido Cantelli will direct the NBC Symphony Orchestra in a Christmas Eve concert featuring Handel's oratorio "The Messiah."
