SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK By R. J. Scott

It Happened Last Night (By Earl Wilson)

At this time of year I like to write nice stories about nice boys. Well, we'll begin this way... where d'you suppose Don went the other night? To hear Toscanini. Half a dozen years ago, Don would have had time for Toscanini only if there'd been a horse of that name.

Two Youths Killed, The Hurt as Car Stikes Underpass

PRIS. Ill. — (AP) — Two girls and youth all seriously hurt — sprawled helplessly in a blood-spattered wrecked car for eight hours before their plight was discovered Christmas morning. To others in the car were found dead.

Traces of Ancient Indian Life Found in Illinois Area

OTTAWA, Ill. — (CP) — Scientists working on the summit of Starved Rock near here have uncovered traces of human life covering many centuries. Sponsored by the state and the University of Chicago, three expeditions set to digging on the rock last summer and found relics antedating the arrival of the first white man.

sack early, but there's little 3 a. m. hell-raising around B'way now. The first time I met Don—in '43—he was on vacation and considered 7 a. m. to be rather early to go to bed. He was better known as Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, and Stephen Foster, composer of "Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair," just then.

Although some folks knock radio now, Don never will. "I'm starting my 20th year in it," this handsome son of a Wisconsin saloonkeeper with the slim waist, slicked-down hair and thin mustache, said. Now, knowing both camera and radio—he's a great TV hope.

"Bernadine Flynn—who did Sade on the 'Vic and Sade' program in Chicago—called me in Kenosha around 1929 and suggested I make a radio test. I did, and... He's been in it since, currently of course, with Jimmy Durante. "The fact that Hollywood hasn't used me for a year and a half brings no criticism from me," he said. "A lot of others are in my shoes."

Don's sons Donnie and Ronnie are going to Iowa schools—one lives with a priest he himself went to school with. Don's father, Felix, who once ran the "best saloon in Kenosha," now has the "best saloon" in Reseda, Calif., which is around Los Angeles. "He calls it 'the Valley Cafe,'" Don said. "It is sort of like El Morocco." I asked Don, quite impressed. "Heaven's no!" said Don. "It's a neighborhood saloon!"

"Don's wife, Honey, must be glad that in recent years he has become an early-better. She complained to me that in the old days he got thoughtful of her about 3 a. m. and decided to bring her an egg sandwich. As it was sometimes 7 when he got home, the egg sandwich was not always at its best. There's nothing as unattractive, she maintained—and she was firm about it—as an old egg sandwich. "I wouldn't know about that, but anyway, nowadays, no old, cold egg sandwiches at dawn.
