After 7 Months Search for Heirs, Judge OKs Estate

After a seven-month search re-vealed that missing relatives had died in the Galveston, Tex., flood and in a prize fight in Canada. County Judge Fred M. Evans ap-Shuttleworth traced the missing proved the distribution of the $10. 097 estate left by Mrs. Elizabeth Cashen, a Hotel Loraine domestic worker who died May 19.

The heirs to the estate are another sister and brother, Judge tate. Evans held up approving the estate and appointed Atty. F. D. Shuttleworth to obtain information on the missing heirs.

After checking vital statistics records in Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, and Louisiana, where the missing sister, Margaret Smith McCarthy, had been known to live, Shuttieworth learned that she and her husband had been killed in the Galveston tornado and flood in 1900. Then began a search for her son

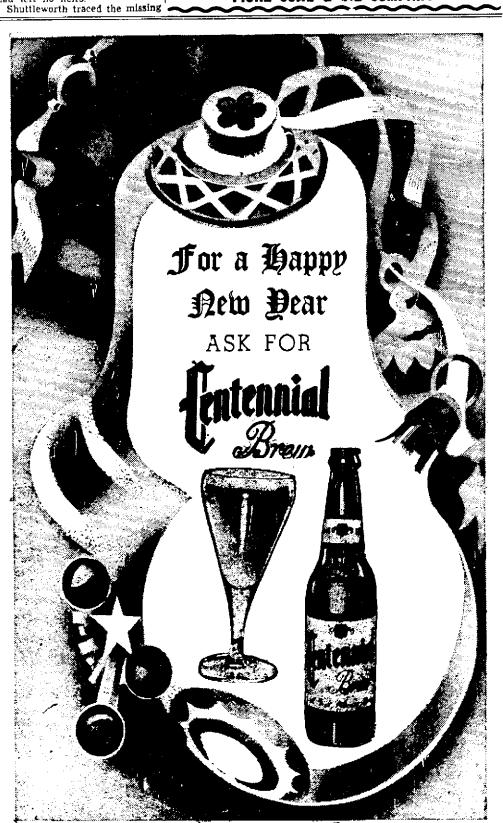

Luther McCarthy. Shuttleworth learned from John Kiernan, New York author and "Information Please" expert, that
