DIAL LITES—TODAY

11:00 A.M.—KFI—The NBC theater dramatization of Thornton Wilder's "The Ides of March" will be repeated today as a special request broadcast.

4:30—KNX—Andrew H. Brown will face his 240-pound spouse in court during the "Amos 'n Andy" broadcast today. Abagail is suing for fraud . . . false pretenses . . . an' jus' about everything else!

5:00—KNX—When Danny Kaye gueststars on the Charlie McCarthy show tonight . . . doing a bit of singing, dancing, leading the band . . . and last but not least . . . a ventriloquist act . . . Charlie decides that this triple-threat lad has to go . . . or he'll take over the entire cast jobs.

7:30—KNX—There's murder and excitement when "The Whistler" comes to you through your speaker tonight with an eerie story concerning a prospector.

8:00—KHJ—Always fun here when "Twenty Questions" gets into the groove . . . and the guest tonight is Mimi Benzell.

8:30—KFI—We have now for your listening pleasure . . . "The Standard Hour" featuring the Seattle Symphony Orchestra under the baton of its new conductor, Manuel Rosenthal, and featuring the soprano vocally Vivian Della Chiesa.

9:30—KECA—Alan Ladd unfolds another exciting adventure in his role of Dan Holiday, during the airing of "Box Thirteen" tonight. Here is near murder, a narrow escape . . . and a thrilling story.

9:30—KHJ—Franz Lehár's operetta "Frederika" is featured tonight on "Chicago Theater of the Air."

TELE-TIPS

7:00—KTTV—Arlene Francis joins regulars George Kaufman and Abe Burrows on the board of panelists on "This Is Show Business" . . . the artists whom they will counsel are Georgia Gibbs, Myron Cohen and Peg Lee Bates.

8:30—KECA—Here is your chance inventors . . . it is the second telecast of "Gadget Jury," the program that passes judgment on your brain child.

8:30—KNBH—"Hancock Adventures" features two complete and thrilling dramas for its premiere tonight. The first film is "Germelshäuser" which tells of a strange experience which befalls an American soldier in a little German village . . . the second is "Smooth Fingers" the tense tale of an artist in a strange profession.

Dave Garroway Develops New Style Comedy for TV

By BETTY PROSSER

CHICAGO, (AP). If you see a guy taking a nap on your television screen, it's probably Dave Garroway. The "very low-pressure" Garroway is experimenting with a new-style TV show, based on his belief that entertainment slanted toward a few persons in a living room must be different from that aimed at thousands in a movie house or radio studio.

The big, bespectacled radio and television star thinks insult-comedy and slapstick soon "will be as obsolete as a Mack Sennett custard pie."

"Two thousand people gathered together will laugh uproariously at a joke which couldn't drag a chuckle from an individual," he says.

Dave's weekly TV network show, for this reason, bars studio audiences.

Dave isn't a comedian, exactly. His "Garroway At Large" telecast is a melange of quiet anecdotes by Dave, songs and dances by the cast, and trick props which evoke chuckles but no belly laughs.

"I don't try to be funny," Garroway says, "just interesting."

Dave has been interesting ever since he started Chicago with a nightly disc jockey show back in 1946. His use of words was unique—and either fascinating or nauseating, according to his listeners' temperaments. But it got him listened to, even from 12 midnight to 1:30 a. m., when his "11:60 Club" was broadcast.

Dave talked humbly to his audience, many of whom acquired glassy stares after being addressed as "Hi, Old Fabulous," or "Hey, Tiger."

Dave's audience heard records described, then played, and then partly replayed after Dave pointed out snatches he favored.

Of one vocalist, for instance, he said, "Listen how she holds that note—and then she forces her hands around it, and throat and sort of shakes it." Sure enough, she did—it the listeners were sympathetic. The others wanted to re-enact Garroway's description with D.ve as stand-in for the note.

Another singer's voice was "rich and moist and has little golden filaments—the girl really puts velvet between your vertebrae, doesn't she?"

This sort of stuff filled the airwaves five nights a week, and mushroomed.

FLOP AS SALESMAN
Garroway got into radio by accident. After graduation from Washington University in St. Louis in 1935, he got a job selling piston rings. In three months he didn't sell one. So he entered Harvard Business School.

By accident, he met a friend who mentioned that NBC had openings for page boys in New York. Dave applied for a job at Radio City. He became a guide, then a guide trainer, and took the network's announcer's course in his spare time.

In his first audition, he finished 23rd in a class of 24. But a few days later, he was hired by Station KDKA in Pittsburgh. He remained there until 1940, when he joined WMAQ in Chicago. In 1942 he joined the Navy as an ensign and saw service aboard mine sweeper and in Honolulu. He was discharged as lieutenant, and returned to WMAQ in 1945.

Video's 'Perfect' Mr. & Mrs. 'p'fft'

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7. (AP) Happily-married Jack and Patty Meakin were one of television's earliest husband and wife teams. "Mr. and Mrs. Television" they were called.

But today the act is pifft. Mrs. Julia Marlon Meakin, 32, charged her 44-year-old husband with failing to speak to her except on the air, and staying out nights without explanation. She won a divorce.

Meakin was ordered to pay $350 a month for support of his wife and their two children, Jack Jr., 10, and Jill, 7.

Mrs. Meakin told reporters the show will go on, but Meakin will "have to get a new girl."

Helen Hayes Stars on Sunday Air Show

Helen Hayes and Walter Abel will be costarred in Rose Frank's highly successful domestic comedy-drama, "Another Language," on "Theater Guild on the Air" Sunday, Jan. 15.

The play, one of the outstanding dramas of Broadway's 1931-32 season, deals with a newly-married couple whose happiness is marred by the husband's maternal, middle-class family.

Miss Frank has won fame as novelist as well as playwright. She is perhaps best known for her "Claudia" stories.

"Another Language" will mark Miss Hayes' second appearance on "Theater Guild on the Air" this season. Her previous appearance was in Noel Coward's "Still Life" last November.

'Ox-bow Incident' on Radio Thursday

Walter Van Tilburg Clark's "The Ox-Bow Incident," a tragic tale of a lynching in a Nevada town will be presented in a radio adaptation on "Screen Guild Theater" Thursday with William Eythe, Edward Arnold and Charles Ruggles in the leading roles. The work was filmed back in 1943.

Claudette Colbert in Playhouse Cast

Claudette Colbert will be the star of "Tomorrow Is Forever" on "Screen Directors' Playhouse" Friday, NBC, 6 p. m., P.S.T.

The story, filmed in 1946, concerns a young woman who believes that her husband was killed in World War I. After a period of mourning, she reluctantly remarries. But her first husband, not dead, continues to live in Europe. On the eve of World War II he returns to the U. S. with a foster-daughter and strong anti-Nazi sentiments.
