59-Year-Old Mother Builds Own House
REDMESA, Colo.—(UP)—The House the Mom Built is the pride of this little mountain town. The five-room bungalow was put up brick by brick, by Mrs. Estelle Brady, a 59-year-old mother who decided to lick the high cost of living and the housing shortage by the simple expedient of a little hard work. Mrs. Brady dug the foundations, laid the cinder blocks, chiseled out a cesspool, laid floors, and put on most of the roof. She had the part-time help and advice of her son-in-law, Ralph Shade, and her son, a former contractor. But she did almost all of the work herself.
