The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

6:00-KNX-One of the most spine-tingling tales ever told on "Suspense" is "The Escape of Lacey Abbott," starring William Powell. An escaped lunatic figures he has but 20 minutes before he is turned in . . . what transpires throughout a terror-filled night winds up in a startling finale.

7:00-KHJ-Top performers in the world of sports will receive their "Oscars" when they personally appear at the dinner tendered them by the Sports Magazine. . . Tommy Henrich of the New York Yankees will be nominated "Athlete of the Year," while every other category in the sports field will have its own repre-

7:30—KNX—Bebe Daniels, Ben Lyon and their children, Barbara and Richard, play the parts of themselves in the "Skippy Hollywood Theater" show "It's Not Cricket." . . . The action revolves around Ben, who attempts to become typically British.

8:30-KHJ-Now it is "Sports for All" . . . the "Fishing and Hunting" program has expanded to include all

9:30-KECA-"Blondie Has an Accident" . . . but this one is fortuitous for Dagwood's honesty in admitting negligence earns him a business contract.

TELE-TIPS

7:30-KTSL-They're "Stranger Than Fiction" . . . the feats to be seen on this show tonight . . . a steamboat found in the desert; a woman with hair 51/2 feet long; septuagenarian with 16 trades . . . lots more "weirdies" for a fun fest tonight.

8:30-KTTV-Quitting the paper for six weeks, Hildy Johnson, reporter, returns as a member of a gang which has been terrorizing Center City's piers . . . the expose and capture of these hoodlums will be seen on "Front Page" tonight.

8:30—KNBH—A supposedly worthless painting is the clue to two murders for "Martin Kane, Private Eye" when he goes exploring tonight.

9:00-KECA-"The Crime in the Crypt" is the spooky title for the thriller brought to you by "Your Witness."

9:00-KTLA-Here is the movie for tonight . . . ""mergency Landing," starring Evelyn Brent, Forest Tucker and Carol Hughes.

Eight Networks Now Vying for Listeners at Home

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK. (AP) Since the advent of television, the number of networks vying for the home audience has exactly doubled to eight.

Radio is represented by four chains: N. B. C., C. B. S. A. B. C. and M. B. S. Television has this group of four: N. B. C., C. B. S.,
