WOODEN ANNIVERSARY

CHARLIE TO GIVE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Charlie McCarthy is going to have a birthday party, and he's promised that for once he'll be on his good behavior. He won't ask Edgar Bergen to hike his 75-cent weekly allowance, nor will he even recognize his fellow rascal Skinny Dugan if he meets him on the street.

The party, at which Charlie will be a sort of combined host and guest of honor, will be held Saturday at CBS Playhouse 2, 251 W. 45th St., New York. The festive occasion will not be broadcast. Bergen and Charlie arrived in Manhattan Thursday for the broadcasts of the "Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy Show" this Sunday and next, at 7 p.m.

Charlie's party will be unique in that all real-life Charlie McCarthy's between the ages of 6 and 14, in the New York metropolitan area, will be invited to be his guests. A couple of hundred namesakes are expected to be present.

Charlie will pass out candy, balloons, novelties, sodas, noise-makers and souvenirs to the kids, and also will star in a special entertainment program. His long-suffering master, Bergen, will be on hand to see that the

Lang to Speak At Goods Show

Gilbert Lang, president and general manager of Frost Bros., will be one of two headline speakers at the San Antonio Spring Dry Goods and Apparel Market in the Gunter Hotel Jan. 29 to 31, the chamber of commerce committee in charge has announced.

Lang will speak Monday, Jan. 30, on the topic, "1950 As I See It." Tuesday's speaker will be Arthur I. Boreman, publisher of the Merchants Trade Journal, Des Moines.

Rooms on sixth floor of the Gunter have been reserved for displays of spring dry goods, apparel and accessories to be shown by wholesalers and manufacturers from San Antonio and other style centers.

Catholic Festival Set at La Villita

Seven girls representing various Catholic parishes will participate in the Second Annual Coronation Queen Festival of the Catholic Youth Organization at a ball at La Villita Sunday.

The girls are: Janice Marty, St. Henry; Teddy Passmore, Sacred Heart; Connie Montano, St. Peter Prince of Apostles; Betty Pizzini, Little Flower; Helen Pruski, St. Michael; Hortense Villareal, St. Agnes; and Beatrice Gonzales, San Fernando Cathedral.

Stella Martinez of St. Alphonsus was the winner in last year's festivities.

Army Vehicle Sale On at Fort Sam

A sealed-bid sale of passenger cars, trucks, trailers, tires, tubes, and miscellaneous parts is being held at Fort Sam Houston until Monday.

Lt. Darold E. Hunter, post salvage officer, said items may be inspected from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. except Saturday and Sunday at the Post Salvage Yard on the Binz-Engleman Road.

Bids will be opened at 9 a.m. Tuesday in Building T-3500, Lt. Hunter said.

Staff Provost Chief Named

Lt. Col. John R. Gee has been named the 12th Air Force Staff Air Provost Marshal.

Col. Gee will succeed Capt. John J. Manbeck. The colonel was formerly commanding officer of the 2507th Air Police Squadron at Brooks A.F.B. and supervised "off base" air police activities here and in the surrounding area.

During this period he was credited with many effective and constructive cooperative procedures between the military and civilian law enforcement agencies in San Antonio.

On the new assignment, Col. Gee will act as staff advisor to the commanding general, 12th Air Force; on air police matters under the unit's jurisdiction in Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

HOW WE CAN KEEP OUR AUTOMOBILES AND PLANES RUNNING AFTER EXHAUSTION of our petroleum supply will be explained on KTSA-CBS "Adventures in Science" by Dr. Simon Klossky, synthetic liquid fuels chemist of the U.S. Bureau of Mines, when he is the program guest of Watson Mack, Saturday at 2:15 p.m. Dr. Klossky will speak from Washington. His topic will be "Liquid Fuel From Oil Shale." He will submit survey figures showing that as much oil still remains available in rock formations in certain areas of this country as has been obtained from all the oil wells that have been drilled. KTSA-2:15 P.M.

WITH HER MOTHER OUT OF TOWN, JUDY GRAVES TAKES OVER THE SOCIAL functions of the house, first of which is a slumber party tossed with abandon for some of her girl friends, on KTSA-CBS' "Junior Miss" Saturday at 10:30 a.m. Barbara Whiting stars as Judy. Henry Garson writes and directs. Fran Van Hartesveldt is the producer. KTSA-10:30 A.M.

ANN RUTHERFORD, STAR OF SUCH FILMS AS "THE SECRET LIFE OF WALTER Mitty" and "Murder in the Music Hall," is cast as Sally Martin, shy small-town girl who goes to the big city and writes back home of glowing business success (fact) and a happy marriage (fiction), in Norman Archer's comedy, "Marriage in Heaven" on KTSA-CBS' "Stars Over Hollywood" Saturday at 12 noon. Hans Conried, one of Hollywood's busiest actors, becomes director of "Stars Over Hollywood" with this performance. This is his first directing assignment for "Stars Over Hollywood," which is featured as Professor Kropotkin on CBS' "My Friend Irma" and as Schultz on "Life With Luigi." Robert Nye produces "Stars Over Hollywood," and Rex Koury conducts the music. KTSA-12 NOON.

LASSIE STARS IN A COMEDY PARCE ON "THE LASSIE SHOW" AT 10 A.M. SATURDAY over WOAI-NBC. The canine star plays the role of Bolivar, assistant to a fake mystic, who inadvertently aids a business tycoon in making several million dollars. The comedy is entitled "The Wag." Allen Reed will be heard as the Swami, and Hans Conried portrays the role of Dubinski, the businessman. Martha Wentworth will be heard as Mrs. Tiddlefeather, one of the Swami's "customers." Lassie's trainer, Rudd Weatherwax, will be heard in his usual role as narrator on the program, and Charles Lyon announces. WOAI-10 A.M.

"AH, LOVE, THOU MAKEST MOST HEARTS REJOICE, BUT LOVE means nothing to our Phantom Voice." That's the latest clue to the identity of the fabulous Phantom, and it will be worth $55,000 in prizes to the listener of KTSA-CBS' "Sing It Again" who can identify and answer one question about him on Saturday at 9 p.m. Other clues broadcast by Emcee Dan Seymour: "If you want to find our Phantom's address go west, young man go west. Our Christmas gift is a double clue; he's married and a father too. No one cheers when he sings but he rocks them when he swings. If you could make Richard open the door then Richard would be a Phantom no more." KTSA-9 P.M.

CARTOONIST AL CAPP, WHOSE COMIC STRIP "LIL ABNER" IS A NATIONAL favorite, will be the guest of John Joe DiMaggio on KTSA-CBS' "Joe DiMaggio Show" Saturday at 9:30 a.m. How Capp rose to fame despite the handicap of a leg amputation will be dramatized and the cartoonist will be interviewed by the Yankee clipper. Dan Ehrenreich directs. KTSA-9:30 A.M.

GILBERT & SULLIVAN'S HILARIOUS OPERA ON BRITISH PARLIAMENTARY procedure, "Iolanthe" will be adapted for radio presentation by Mutual's "Chicago Theater Of The Air" for its broadcast Saturday. Contralto Ruth Slater and baritone John Barclay will be co-starring in the major singing roles for this production. Tenor Robert Harris and soprano Marie Hadden will also be featured along with baritone Bruce Foote and Earl Wilkie. Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor, publisher and world historian, will be the intermission speaker discussing a current or past topic of interest to all. Henry Weber conducts the orchestra and Marian Trender directs the chorus. Jack La Frandre is the writer-director and Robert Clarke is the producer. KMAC-9 P.M.

STYMIED FOR A YEAR, POLICE FINALLY ARE PUT ON THE track of a ruthless bunch of safe-crackers by the combination of some rejected orials and an empty glass, in the "Case of the Four Featherboms" on KTSA-CBS' "Gangbusters" Saturday at 8 p.m. Lester J. Divine, Chief of Police, Oakland, Calif., is narrator. KTSA-8 P.M.

MOST DRAMATIC PORTIONS OF THREE FAVORITE fairy tales are interwoven by author-producer-director Nila Mack in "Snow Drop and the Seven Dwarfs" on CBS' "Let's Pretend" Saturday at 10:05 a.m. Highlights of the "Sleeping Beauty," "Cinderella" and "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" are combined in the imaginative story. Maurice Brown composes and conducts original mood music for the drama. KTSA-10:05 A.M.
