Paul Douglas Seeks Radio Roles; Veep, Wife on Big Heart Fund Show Tonight

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK. (AP) Paul Douglas, who switched from sports and studio announcing to the stage and later the movies, has been dickering with N. B. C. about getting back into radio as an actor.

On its part, N. B. C. reports it has been looking for the right kind of a drama series to fit the Douglas characterization. Teaming with him would be Judy Holliday, who was on the stage and in the movies with him.

N. B. C. also has been working on its Monday night television Menasha Skulnik, famed Yiddish schedule and looking for suitable comedian.
