The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters.

DIAL LITES-TODAY

1:30-KNX-"LP Record Parade" is a weekly half hour of popular and classical music . . . today's feature is the Scherzo from Beethoven's Symphony in "E Flat Major, No. 3"... also included is part of the score of the hit musical "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

2:30-KECA-"The Man Who Sought Forgiveness" is the theme of the Biblical drama told on "The Greatest Story.

4:00-KNX-"The American King of Hearts," Jack Benny, will receive that title from the Heart Association in recognition of his efforts in its behalf. . . . Benny's show will come from the Great White Way, where he and his troupe are basking in the spotlight of that famed area.

5:30-KFI-The "Theater Guild of the Air" revives the charming play, "Autumn Crocus," with Dorothy Mc-Guire and Charles Boyer ably taking the lead roles.

8:00-KHJ-"Twenty Questions" begins its fifth year on the air with tonight's broadcast. The special anniversary guest will be Bandleader Guy Lombardo, who was also the show's first guest in 1946. 11:00-KFI-Benjamin Cohen of the U. N. will present the awards to the Screen Writers Guild in recognition of their achievement in dealing with problems of the American scene. TELE-TIPS

7:00—KECA—Charles Boyer, personification of romance, will be the featured guest on "The Paul Whiteman Revue" . . . sharing the spotlight with him will be Frank Loesser, composer of such hit tunes as "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition.'

8:00—KNBH—Composer Hoagy Carmichael will join Perry Como on his "Supper Club" to play a carnival scene in which Hoagy plays the medicine man and Perry a side show barker. 8:00_KTTV_A star-studded bill includes the French song group, Les Compagnons des Chansons, and the comedy team of Joey Adams, Mark Plant and Tony Canzoneri on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town." 8:00-KTTV-Fred Waring offers a tribute to Jerome

Kern on the birthday of this American composer. . A medley of his lovely music will be the high light of the program.
