

Indiana Village 'Shares Wealth' as Oil Gusher Promises Plenty
PLAINVILLE, Ind. — (U.P.) — There wasn't a "for sale" sign posted on any lot in this little town of some 600 persons Sunday all because a share-and-share-alike plan for profits from oil wells was nearly complete.

Radio Program Schedules by the Clock

Table with columns for radio stations: WIBA, WISC, WKOW, WIBU, WBBM, WENR-WLS, WGN, WMAQ. Rows list various programs and their times from 6:00 AM to 11:45 PM.

TIP O' THE MORNING: Details of a plan for rental-purchase of art works will be announced Sunday at the preview-tea of the Madison Artists' exhibition. It will be sponsored by the Madison Art Assn.

Some new radio shows are in the making, although they haven't been announced officially. And some of them may never hit the air, radio being as volatile as it is.

Buy Chicks at Right Time, Farmers Told
As a spring reminder to poultry raisers, W. P. Mortenson, farm economist at the University of Wisconsin, said Sunday that to hit the egg market when prices are high depends on buying chicks at the right time.

ACTORS WANTED: A call for radio actors has come once more from WHA. Auditions or campus acting are scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday according to Ray Stanley, production manager. They will be held in Radio Hall from 7 to 9 p. m.
